Second Contest Goes 11 Innings—Mathewson Pitches Great Ball for New York—Collins and Hall Batted Out of the Box—Bedient Finishes—Will Play Tie Off at Boston Today.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—The second contest of the world's series between the Boston American Leaguers and the New York Nationals today went 11 innings to a tie score of 6 to 6, when darkness put an end to the battle that kept 30,000 spectators on the edge of keenest excitement throughout every inning. The contest will be played over tomorrow at Fenway Park.

With one victory registered for the Red Sox, Manager McGraw sent out his star twirler, Mathewson, to capture the second game for the Giants. Mathewson had been rested for about two weeks to win the first game he twirled, but tonight the Red Sox still were happy because of their one victory and no game lost with the dreaded Mathewson worn out with a hard-pitched 11-inning tie game.

Tris Speaker, the Red Sox centerfielder, furnished the dramatic climax in the contest where fortune played fickle favor with first one and then the other team.

The ninth inning found the Red Sox and the Giants locked in a tie score of five to five. The Red Sox left hander, Collins, had been driven from the box in the eighth inning by a shower of hits, and Hall had been sent to relieve him. Merkle smashed out a three-bagger in the 10th inning and the home club was in gloom when he scored on a sacrifice hit.

In the fading light it was difficult for the Red Sox to follow the course of Mathewson's big drop and New York felt confident. Yerkes had been turned back and the big crowd looked to Speaker. The trio of Giant outer gardeners, moved afield. Mathewson wound up and turned loose a fast inshoot. Speaker gave a wicked swing and the ball sailed far over Becker's head in center. Speaker rounded The ball caromed to Shafer, who mo- The ball caromed to Shafer, who momentarily juggled it. Speaker hesitated at third, then sped for the plate and slid under Catcher Wilson, who fumbled Shafer's relay throw. That tied the score and the crowd went wild. To make sure that he had touched the plate Speaker returned and touched the plate another time before Wilson recovered the ball.

Red Sox fans were loath tonight to give the Giants credit for a game fight. The Bostons took the lead in the first inning and scored three runs, but the Giants, undismayed fought back and picked up a run in the second and another in the fourth inning. Boston tallied another score in the fifth inning, but New York was not to be denied and when Duffy Lewis dropped Snodgrass' fly, opening the eighth inning, they started a batting bee that caused Manager Stahl to hurry Hall to Collins' relief. Three runs already were over the plate on an error, a single and two doubles. This gave New York a lead of one run. The Giants held their lead but a moment, however, for the Red Sox attacked Mathewson's drop curves savagely and aided by an error by Fletcher the tying run was sent over the plate. Then came the exciting 10th with Merkle's hit and Speaker's mighty smash to the centerfield fence.

Fletcher was broken-hearted tonight over his poor game at short stop for New York. Two of his three glaring errors aided materially in the making of runs by the Red Sox.

Wagner starred at short stop for Boston, accepting 10 chances and executing a brilliant play in the ninth inning when on the dead run he speared Fletcher's grounder with his gloved hand, turned and with a rifle-shot throw that Stahl also took with one hand, nailed Fletcher at first base.

There was an unusual lot of base stealing in the game for a world's series contest, five bags being pilfered.

Of these, Hooper stole two and Stahl one for the Red Sox, while Snodgrass and Herzog each beat Carrigan's throws.

Hooper, for the Red Sox, had a field day. He knocked out three hits, stole two bases, scored once and gathered in three flies in the outfield. Murray duplicated his telling work of yesterday with the stick by hammering out a single, a double and a triple. Herzog also got a single, a two-bagger and a three-base hit and sent up a sacrifice fly opportunely. Mathewson's control was perfect. He did not issue a base on balls and fanned four men.

Doyle played a scintillating game at second for New York.

"We have stopped the Red Sox on their home grounds," said Manager McGraw tonight, "and the team is very well satisfied. We have shown that the Giants were game, and that gameness is going to count a great deal more before the series is over."

"The Red Sox have always felt that Mathewson was the one man to beat," said Manager Jake Stahl. "I think today's game, while it did not end in a victory, shows that we can hit the New York twirler, whose work today must have tired him out."

Attendance and Receipts

Boston handled the big crowd without trouble. With the exception of a few bare spots in the outfield stands every seat was taken. Tickets brought three times the regular price of $3 for the grandstand.

The National Commission figures for attendance and receipts at today's game follows: Total paid attendance 30,148; total receipts $58,369.

Players' share $31,519.26. Each club's share $10,506.42. National Commission's share $5,836.90.

Game Opens With Parade

There was just as much ceremony in starting the game today as there was in New York yesterday, with the added feature of several hundred Red Sox rooters marching into the grounds behind a brass band playing a lively march. The "Rah, rah, rah," of the loyal supporters of the American League champions re-echoed back and forth as the home team took the field. Umpire "Silk" O'Loughlin announced the ground rules.

Manager Stahl, having elected to send in Ray Collins, a left hander, to do the twirling, the make up of the Giants' batting order was in doubt until the various players actually took their turn at bat. Snodgrass was the first man up.

Snodgrass Gets a Double

There was a cheer when Collins served up the first strike and on the next ball pitched the New Yorker hoisted a long hit into the left field bleachers for two bases. This put Collins in a hole right at the start but he turned Captain Doyle back to the bench as his first strike-out victim. Doyle had tried hard to put Snodgrass on third, but Collins' curves fooled him. Becker, who went into the game because Devore does not take kindly to left-hand pitching, was an easy out, Yerkes to Stahl, Snodgrass going to third. Murray also failed to reach first, ending the inning by hitting a weak grounder to Collins, who tossed the ball to first.

Fireworks Set Off

The first fireworks in the game were set off immediately after Boston went to bat. Hooper opened with an infield hit and beat "Matty's" throw to first by hard sprinting. The Boston fans started to cheer and the volume increased to a tumult when Hooper stole second. Meyers' throw was a little wide. Fletcher then made his first error, muffing Yerkes' liner. Speaker came to time with a bunt which Mathewson failed to run on and let run along toward third base, Hooper and Yerkes moving up.

Then the Red Sox rooters rose in all the stands and called upon Lewis to "hit 'er out." The best Lewis could do, however, was to drive a bounder to Herzog, who flashed the ball to Meyers at the plate, forcing Hooper.

Boston Scores First

Gardner then hit one through the pitcher's box and Doyle running in, scooped up the ball and threw Gardner out while Yerkes came across the plate with the first run of the game.

Breaking into the run column gave Jake Stahl confidence and he swung viciously at one of Mathewson's out curves and drove it to left field for a single, sending home Speaker and Lewis. Doyle took Wagner's high fly, ending the inning. This three-run lead looked extremely good to the Red Sox rooters and they sang while the band played.

Herzog Delivers the Goods

New York's players did not appear to mind the lead and several of them patted Merkle on the back as he went to bat. Collins, however, did not give him a chance to distinguish himself, for he struck out the big first baseman on three pitched balls. Herzog waited and with two balls and two strikes on him drove a smashing three-base hit to right center and crossed the plate a minute later when Meyers laced out a single, which struck Gardner in the face. Fletcher put up a high fly to Hooper and Mathewson forced Meyers at second, Yerkes to Wagner. This ended the inning.

No Scoring in the Second

For Boston, in the second inning, Carrigan went out, Herzog to Merkle. Doyle scooped up Collins' grounder by a brilliant bit of fielding and tossed the pitcher out at first. Hooper again raised a tremendous cheer in the stands by lining out his second hit, a two-bagger to right, but he was left there when Yerkes went out Fletcher to Merkle.

Both teams went out in order in the third inning.

Murray Hits and Scores

The New York contingent whooped things up when "Red" Murray opened the Giants' fourth inning with a long drive to right center for three bases. Merkle fouled to Gardner and then Herzog sent out a sacrifice fly to Speaker, scoring Murray.

Meyers again singled and was left at first, when Fletcher batted a high fly to Hooper.

For Boston, Stahl struck out, Wagner flied to Murray and Carrigan shot a grounder to Fletcher, who flashed it across to Merkle.

Collins was pitching world's championship ball at this time and New York appeared to be unable to fathom his delivery. Mathewson, first up in the fifth, struck out. Snodgrass also fell before Collins' pitching for three strikes and Doyle flied out to Lewis.

Red Sox Annex Another.

Boston added a run in the fifth. After Collins had struck out, Hooper got his third hit, a single to center.

SEEKS THE "PING" TELEGRAMS

Government Examines Several Witnesses In Dynamite Case In Effort to Locate Messages Directing Explosions

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—Telegrams signed "Ping," alleged to have been an alias of Herbert S. Hockin, and sent to Ortie E. McManigal, directing him where to "drop" dynamite bombs on his trips about the country, were sought by the government through the examination of the first witnesses called in the tdial of the accused "dynamiter plotters" today.

Managers of telegraph offices in Buffalo, Detroit, Toledo, Chicago, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Evansville, Ind., and Salt Lake City, testified. With one exception they asserted that the originals of telegrams asked for by the government covering a period as far back as 1908 had been destroyed in the ordinary course of business. The government asserted it has possession of the telegrams as received and it calls the witnesses to show the reason why the original messages as sent cannot be produced. It was during this period that McManigal and the McNamaras formed the "flying squadron of dynamiters," the government charges, and often sent McManigal out alone and equipped with a suit case filled with explosives to await orders by telegraph as to what he should blow up.

When James W. Noel, one of the counsel for the government, asked why the telegrams were not produced, Senator J. W. Kern, counsel for the defendants, asked the witnesses:

"You don't know that any such telegrams ever existed do you?"

The witnesses replied they could not remember individual messages.

The telegrams, Noel said, often were sent to Hockin to McManigal's house in Chicago.

H. A. Knight, manager of a telegraph office at Salt Lake City, was the first witness to produce a telegram. The telegram was dated October 10th, 1910, and was purported to have been signed by J. E. Munsey, one of the defendants. According to the government's charges, J. B. McNamara, after blowing up the Los Angeles Times building on October 1st, 1910, hid for two weeks in places designated by Munsey.

J. J. McNamara, then secretary of the Iron Workers headquarters in Indianapolis, was anxious about his brother after the Los Angeles explosion. The telegram as identified by

WILSON AND CLARK ON STUMP

Campaign Together In States Which Showed Preference for the Speaker in the Primaries—Get Great Receptions.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—Speaker Champ Clark and Governor Woodrow Wilson campaigned together today in Illinois and Missouri, the two States which showed preference for Mr. Clark by a heavy vote in the primaries for the Democratic Presidential nomination.

Enthusiasm marked the greeting the two men received as they appeared in several cities.

"The office of President of the United States is the greatest in the world," Ill. "That's why I wanted to be Presi- Speaker Clark said, at Springfield, dent. I don't have to tell this audience that Woodrow Wilson was not my first choice. My first choice was defeated. However, I am for Governor Wilson for the Presidency as every true Democrat ought to be."

The Governor and Speaker Clark shook hands amid great applause.

The crowd at the fair grounds in Springfield was so great that the Governor's voice could not reach the outer extremity of the throng.

"My thought about both Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt," the Governor said at the fair grounds, "is that of entire

OUTLINES

Normal conditions have been restored in Nicaragua.

The possibility of a general strike on all the railroads running out of Atlanta and involving 15,000 employes, will be discussed by railroad workers at Atlanta today.

New York and Boston battled to a 6 to 6, 11-inning tie in the second game of the world's championship series yesterday and the game will be played off in Boston today.

The government yesterday introduced several witnesses in the dynamite cases in an effort to find the "Ping" telegrams, messages alleged to have been sent by Herbert S. Hocki and which directed the scene of the explosions.

Gov. Wilson and Champ Clark yesterday campaigned together through Illnois and Missouri, both of which States expressed preferences for the Speaker in the primaries. They were given great receptions at very stopping place.

The situation in the Balkans yesterday was unchanged, the reported severance of diplomatic relations with Turkey by Bulgaria and Servia being unconfirmed. The allied States are busily concentrating their forces in preparation for war.

Charles P. Taft, appearanig before the Senate committee investigating campaign contributions, yesterday testified that he contributed over $213,000 to the primary campaign fund of his brother, the President. Dan R. Hanna, Roosevelt backer in Ohio, testified he gave $177,000 to the colonel's campaign.

BALKAN SITUATION STILL UNCHANGED

Rumors That Bulgaria and Servia Had Declared War Unconfirmed

BUSY CONCENTRATING FORCES

Definite Move Expected from Greece. Montenegrin Advance on Berana Indicates Intention to Join Servian Army.

London, Oct. 9.—Another day has elapsed without so far, as is known, any extension of the Balkan war. Earlier rumors that Bulgaria and Servia have declared war are not confirmed. None of the embassies or legations in London tonight had heard of any development since Montenegro made her hostile declaration against Turkey. It may be assumed that while making some show of deference towards the powers' intervention, the Balkan States are busily engaged in completing concentration of their forces. The King of Greece returned to Athens today and some definite move can now be expected on the part of Greece.

It is suggested that the Montenegrin advance on Berana, near the frontier, may indicate the intention of that country to effect a junction with the Servian army coming from the north. No further details of actual fighting have been received.

The Russian government has issued a denial of the reported mobilization of her army. Russia declares all reservists called up for a test already have been disbanded. It is understood that Germany will protect Turkish subjects in the Balkan States, should war ensue.

Bulgarians Cross Frontier.

London, Oct. 9.—Confirmation of the rupture of diplomatic relations with Turkey by both Bulgaria and Servia has been received in Paris, according to a news agency dispatch. No confirmation has reached the British foreign office, however. A Bulgarian force is reported to have crossed the Turkish frontier and King Ferdinand is said to be hurrying southward to take command of the allied Balkan troops.

Fighting on the Frontier.

Saloniki, Turkey, Oct. 9.—Serious fighting continues between the Turkish and the Montenegrin forces on the Montenegrin frontier.

Essad Pasha, the Turkish commander of the force marching to the relief of Scutari, has passed the river Boyana without encountering any opposition.

The Albanians in the frontier districts have promised to restrain the Montenegrin troops without any help from the Turkish troops.

Turkey Awaits Events.

Constantinople, Turkey, Oct. 9. — The Turkish government awaits coming events with calm assurance, according to Norad Dundhigian Effendi, the Ottoman foreign minister. In an interview given to The Associated Press today, he said:

"We face the future with perfect confidence. I should like to point out, however, that the declaration of war by Montenegro was made contrary to the practice adopted by all civilized States. It went against the stipulation of The Hague convention, of which Montenegro was a signatory.

"In the first place, no attempt was made to seek the good offices of a third party in order to find a means of avoiding a conflict.

"Secondly, a declaration of war did not set forth any real or tangible cause for war.

"Thirdly, Montenegro opened hostilities without granting the usual preliminary delay and actually before the declaration of war was presented to the Porte."

The Turkish government has decided to make a selection from among the Greek vessels detained in Turkish ports and will hold those best suited for military transport purposes and release the others.

C. P. TAFT ADMITS HE GAVE $213,000

Testifies He Contributed That Amount to President's Campaign.

DAN R. HANNA ON THE STAND

Roosevelt Backer in Ohio Tells Senate Investigating Committee He Contributed $177,000 to Bull Moose Campaign.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Charles P. Taft told the Senate committee investigating campaign funds that he contributed $159,339.30 to aid in electing his brother President in 1908; and had paid $213,592.41 this year toward the expenses of gaining the President's renomination.

Mr. Taft was on the point of telling the committee how much the nomination in 1908 had cost him when Chairman Clapp stated that the committee had no authority to investigate the pre-convention campaign of that year, or funds used in the election now in progress. Mr. Taft said his object in going into the campaign was to see that if his brother were elected he should "walk into the White House free of any monetary obligation to any individual, great interest or corporation. "On this basis," he added, "I was prepared to go the limit. I believed my brother was admirably equipped for the position. I believed in his integrity, his fearlessness and I believed no one could bulldoze or use him. The principal thing to be obviated was the influence of any candidate on any monetary interest."

Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, backer of the Roosevelt forces in Ohio, this year, followed Mr. Taft on the witness stand. He testified he gave $177,000 to the support of the Roosevelt campaign for nomination this year. Of this sum $50,000 went to the Roosevelt National Committee; $50,000 to Walter F. Brown, manager of the Roosevelt Ohio campaign, and another $77,000 to the work of organization in Ohio.

Expenses of the fight of Speaker Champ Clark for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency were given by his manager, former Senator Ned T. DuBois, as $50,468.50. Senator Watson, of West Virginia, was the heaviest contributor, giving $10,700, and William R. Hearst the next, with contributions amounting to $8,500. The total contributions to the original Clark fund were $45,948.98.

At the end of the Baltimore convention, Senator DuBois said the Clark forces had a deficit of $4,590—$3,000 of which was made up by Speaker Clark personally.

The expense statements from Mr. Taft, Mr. Hanna and the Clark manager were but part of an interesting day before the committee.

"The Harriman fund", incident of 1904, occupied the morning session. Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, testified that Mr. Harriman repeatedly had told him that President Roosevelt asked him to go to Washington in October, 1904, and asked him to assist in getting funds to aid the New York Republican State campaign.

Former Senator Root, of West Virginia, connected with the National committee in 1904, said Chairman Cortelyou had declined his suggestion to go to "26 Broadway" for more money, declaring that President Roosevelt did not want contributions from the Standard Oil interests. Senator Root thought President Roosevelt had told him over the telephone that "Mr. Harriman is coming and I'll see if we can raise some money for the New York fight."

Other witnesses included Matthew Hale ,of Massachusetts, who said the Roosevelt primary campaign in that State this year cost $71,436.50, only $9,802.70 of which was raised locally; W. T. Mossman, of Pittsburg, who testified that $67,183.79 had been spent by the Taft club of Pittsburg for the campaign in Western Pennsylvania; C. B. Warren, of Detroit, who raised $18,935 for the Taft campaign in Michigan; Walter L. Brown, of Toledo, Roosevelt manager in Ohio, who could not account for about $65,000 of the $127,000 which Mr. Hanna said he gave for the Roosevelt campaign in that State. Mr. Brown said it had gone for "organization" that should not properly be charged to the Roosevelt campaign.

Tomorrow the committee will hear Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee and former secretary to President Taft, and John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company, who testified in August that he gave $100,000 to the Roosevelt fund in 1904.

STRIKE BREAKERS SHOT.

One Fatally Injured in Battle With Strikers at Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 9.—Two strike breaking street car employes were shot, one probably fatally, here tonight when shots were exchanged between the men on the car and strike sympathizers. No arrests were made. The crowd attacked the car in Summerville and it is said sought to drag the motorman and conductor off the car. They replied by a shot into the crowd. Instantly the fire was returned by a dozen men. The injured men were rushed to a hospital.

WE CAN AND MUST REACH HIGH MARK

Already First in Wilson Contributions, Wilmington Must Do More.

THE CANVASS ON YESTERDAY

Rally of Campaign Committees Tonight—Fifty Dollars Contributed Yesterday—Total Now Nearly $4,000.

Wilmington can and must raise the $10,000 which was set as the standard of her contributions to the Woodrow Wilson campaign fund!

Only a few of the committees were on the "war path" yesterday, but all are expected to get down to business today and tonight there will be a rally of all the forces which have set out to reach the high standard set by the committee of One Hundred.

The mere fact that Wilmington has set this high standard has attracted attention at National headquarters and has been called to the attention of the leaders. With the contributions now nearly up to $4,000, this good city, the home of Governor Wilson's boyhood, is ahead of all cities in the United States in the measure of its support to the People's Candidate, but the work must not stop here. Not half the people who should and will contribute have been reached and the demand is insistent.

That Wilmington's activity in this respect has already attracted attention at headquarters is evidenced by the following telegram received yesterday from Assistant Secretary Walker W. Vick, of the Democratic National Committee:

"New York, Oct. 9.

"Mr. Jos. E. Thompson, Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

"The Old North State now occupies the proud position of fourth in contributions among Southern States and ninth throughout the country. Wilmington has achieved the distinguished position of first among Southern cities of her size. This magnificent showing has been brought to the attention of Democracy's National leaders with enthusiastic gratification, with overwhelming victory presaged by conditions everywhere. Money is urgently needed for vital necessities of the campaign and the South can blaze the pathway of redemption from Republican rule by generous contributions at this time. The valiant services so consistently rendered by The Star to Governor Wilson's cause are cordially appreciated and your efforts and those of the good people of Wilmington are being watched with care by our leaders. Ten thousand would be a grand expression from the City by the Sea. "WALTER W. VICK,
"Asst. Secretary Democratic National Committee."

As the lines become more sharply drawn in this campaign, the people are coming to realize that it is really a momentous fight for the people and in behalf of the people. It should not only be considered a duty, but a privilege to join in this great movement and to join in it substantially. The issues as at present drawn are perhaps without a parallel in the political history of the Nation and the handwriting is on the wall. A very ardent admirer of Governor Wilson takes a very advanced position in his ideas on this question and expressed himself yesterday as follows:

"A war tax imposed by the government to meet the expenses incident to international differences or insurrection, has to be paid. Some of the biggest brains in the country—judging the future by the past—prophesy a revolution in the United States, if conditions are not materially and quickly altered.

All three candidates know this, but Governor Wilson is the only one who can be trusted to bring about the necessary changes. Is it not better—and cheaper in the end—to help put Governor Wilson in the Presidential chair by making a voluntary contribution now, than by having to put a revenue stamp on every check or negotiable note, merchandise, etc.?"

The following are yesterday's contributions:

J. V. Grainger, Chairman.

R. A. Brand	$ 10.00
H. C. McQueen	20.00
Walter Storm	1.00
Total	$ 31.00

Geo. Honnet, Chairman.

and again stole second. Yerkes came through with a smashing three-base drive to right center and Hooper came home. With Speaker up it looked as if there would be more scoring, but the latter drove a hot liner that Fletcher managed to hold and doubled up Yerkes at third. In this inning Murray and Snodgrass changed places in the outfield, because of the sun.

In the sixth, Becker was out, Yerkes to Stahl; Murray singled, his second hit, and Merkle sent a fly to Speaker. Murray tried to steal second, but was out, Carrigan's throw to Wagner.

In the sixth Becker was out Yerkes to Stahl. Murray singled, his second hit, and Merkle sent a fly to Speaker. Murray tried to steal second, but was out on Carrigan's throw to Wagner.

Lewis Gets to Third.

Fletcher made his second error in the sixth, missing Lewis' grounder. Gardner's sacrifice, Mathewson to Merkle, put Lewis on second and he went to third on Stahl's out, also Mathewson to Merkle. He was left at third when Wagner rolled a little grounder with which Mathewson touched out the runner.

Herzog started the seventh by singling to right. Meyers flied out to Yerkes and Herzog stole second. Fletcher flied to Stahl and Mathewson struck out.

Boston went out in order. Carrigan was out Herzog to Merkle, Collins struck out for the second time and Hooper grounded out, Doyle to Merkle.

The End of Collins

Then came the eighth inning, into which was crowded much of excite-

Snodgrass led off by hitting a drive to Lewis, which the left fielder muffed. Doyle singled to center and Snodgrass took second. Doyle was forced at second when Yerkes picked up Becker's grass cutter, and tossed it to Wagner, Snodgrass taking third. Murray hit a two-bagger into the left field, which scored Snodgrass and put Becker on third.

Hall Relieves Collins.

Manager Stahl here called in Hall to pitch. Merkle, the first man to face him, fouled out to Carrigan. Carrigan dropped Herzog's difficult foul fly, after a hard run, and then the New Yorker doubled to center, and Becker and Murray came across the plate. This put New York in front. There was wild excitement in the stands. The inning ended when Meyers went out, Wagner to Stahl.

Red Sox Tie the Score.

One run behind Boston was desperate. Yerkes put up a high fly to Murray and Speaker went out, Mathewson to Merkle.

Lewis then hit for two bases into the left field bleachers. Murray, in his effort to get the ball, fell over the three-foot fence into the crowd. Fletcher then made his third error on Gardner's grounder, and Lewis scored the tying run amid great excitement. Stahl singled to the infield and stole second, Gardner being held at third. Wagner ended the inning by striking out.

No Scoring in Ninth.

Fletcher opened the ninth by grounding out to Stahl. Mathewson flied out to Stahl. Here Hall lost the location of the plate, Snodgrass getting his base. He stole second and then Doyle and Becker also were passed. Murray ended the inning by forcing Becker, Wagner to Yerkes.

Boston went out in order in the ninth; Carrigan, by the way of Mathewson to Merkle, Hall on a foul to Herzog and Hooper on a pop fly to Doyle.

Giants Forge Ahead.

Merkle opened the 10th for New York with a drive to center for three bases. After Herzog had been retired, Wagner to Stahl, and Meyers had been passed purposely, McCormick, who had been sent in to bat for Fletcher, hit out a sacrfice fly to Lewis, scoring Merkle and putting New York in the lead again.

Mathewson flied out to Yerkes.

Speaker Triples and Scores.

Yerkes opened the Red Sox 10th by dropping a grounder in front of the plate, which Wilson got and threw to Merkle. Then Speaker made his long triple, on which he scored on Wilson's error at the plate. Lewis doubled, but was left on the paths, Gardner going out, Doyle to Merkle, and Stahl, Herzog to Merkle.

Bedient Relieves Hall.

Bedient took up Boston's pitching burden in the eleventh. He hit Snodgrass and then struck out Doyle.

Snodgrass went out stealing, Carrigan to Wagner. Becker received a base on balls and was out, Carrigan to Wagner, trying to pilfer.

Boston went out in order, Shafer tossing out both Wagner and Carrigan, and Mathewson throwing out Bedient. Then the game was called on account of darkness.

DRIVEN TO THE BENCH IN TEARS.

CUBS AND WHITE SOX TIE.

Rival Chicago Teams Play Nine Scoreless Innings.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Darkness ended a scoreless game between the two major league clubs which met in the opening game of a series today to decide the baseball championship of Chicago. The contest was called in the ninth inning.

Walsh pitched in rare form, holding the Nationals to one hit. Only 28 men faced him. He did not issue a base on balls and struck out seven men. Lavender held the Americans to six scattered hits and received brilliant support.

The receipts were $11,624.25, of which $6,288.43 will go to the players, $2,096.15 to each club owner, and $1,164.25 to the National Commission.

Batteries: Walsh and Sullivan; Lavender and Archer; umpires Connolly, Owens, Dineen and Brennan.

NAVY COACHES ARE PLEASED

Leonard and Alexander Did Good Work in Yesterday's Practice

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 9.—Special attention was given to the backfield by the Naval Acedamy coaches this afternoon, and several new formations were tried. The direct pass to the back, who carried the ball, was used in most of the plays. Capt. Rhodes, who has been out of the game for some time, started in the scrimmage this afternoon, and during the comparatively short time he was in the game he was allowed to carry the ball in a majority of the plays.

Alexander and McReavy, with Gilchrist at quarter, made up the backfield. Alexander showed much speed. Rhodes was succeeded by Leonard, who did excellent work toward the close of last season. Leonard is the best man in the squad for avoiding attempts at tackling him. While there was considerable fumbling this afternoon, the general work was encouraging, that of Leonard and Alexander being particularly promising.

ATHLETICS WIN AGAIN.

Defeat Phillies 4 to 0—Recruit Houck Stars.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The Philadelphia Americans won its second game in the local inter-league series here today, defeating the National League players 4 to 0. Houck, the young Oregon twirler, pitched for the former world's champions and gave only three hits.

THE APOLLO CONCERT CO.

Opens Star Course of the Brotherhood of St. Andrews.

The Apollo Concert Company is composed of strictly high-class musicians and entertainers, capable of giving programmes of great variety and superior quality. A careful consideration of the personnel of the company, their long and successful concert experience, the instrumentation (which includes legitimate instruments only) in solos and splendid ensemble work, the vocal selections, readings, etc, will attract a large audience and please them greatly. The press of many of the best Lyceum cities of this country uniformly attest the splendid satisfaction given by their entertainment to crowded houses.

The Apollos are five artists of equal rank and each is deserving of individual mention.

Mrs. Alta R. Wells is an accomplished artist, a graduate of the Chicago Musical College and has had six years' experience in lyceum and concert work.

Miss Coyle M. Spring as a reader has had successful experience in platform work. Her ability to interpret the best literature has placed her among readers of highest rank. She is a graduate of the Chicago Conservatory of Music and Dramatic Art and followed this with a post graduate course in the American Conservatory of Chicago and the Elias Day School of Lyceum Arts.

Mr. Arthur Wells is a cultured musician and worthy of a place among professionals of highest rank. A splendid banjo soloist and saxaphone player.

Mr. Clay Smith began his musical career as guitar soloist with the Curtis-Graves Mandolin Club at the World's Fair in Chicago, 1893, and since that date has been steadily engaged in concert work.

Mr. G. E. Holmes has had many years of successful concert experience as cornet and flute soloist with various concert companies and bands, and for three years was teacher of concert, trombone, flute, saxaphone, and harmony. Lovers of music will have the opportunity of being highly entertained by this company Monday evening, October 14th, in the auditorium of the Memorial Building of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Single admission will be 75 cents. Season tickets can be had for $2 a single ticket and $4 a double ticket, which will entitle the holder to seven attractions.

Tickets will be on sale at the auditorium Monday evening. No seats reserved. Entertainment will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

PLENTY OF COACHES.

Four Follow Plays of Virginia Eleven in Lengthy Work-Out.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 8.—Four coaches looked after the Virginia football squad today, the new arrival being Dr. H. Cabell Maddux, U. S. A., a former end. Dr. Neff gave his entire attention to the 'varsity eleven, Head Coach Elliott spending his time with the second and third teams in quest of new timber.

The first and second teams engaged in a half hour's light scrimmage, then the regulars being given a few new plays. The second and third elevens then went at it hammer and tongs, stopping only when it became too dark to play. Quarterback Randolph once got away for a 70-yard run and touchdown. Meyer showed up well at end.

Several cripples engaged in the signal practice, including Capt. Todd, Gooch, Thoms and Benet. Redus, a tackle last year, followed the 'varsity through practice.

The regulars spent the first half hour in an effort to perfect themselves in the use of the forward pass.

BEATEN IN WOODS BY NEGROES

Cape Charles, Va., Oct. 8.—Louis Satchell, 58 years old, was brutally assaulted and robbed by two negroes while on his way from Pungoteague, Va., to Keller Station to catch a train about 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

He was walking along a lonely stretch of wood when he was pounced upon by his assailants, who had been hiding in the bushes. He was beaten about the head and body with a heavy weapon and rendered unconscious. The negroes then ripped his pockets, taking a wallet containing $40 and made their escape.

The authorities of Keller were notified of the assault and two suspects were placed under arrest. Satchell is employed by the Menhaden Oil and Guano Company, of Harborton, Va. He formerly resided in Baltimore.

REPUBLICANS IN LINE.

Forty Thousand G. O. P. Adherents Will Vote Democratic Ticket.

New York, Oct. 9.—More than 40,000 progressive Republicans have pledged their support to Governor Wilson through the Wilson National Progressive Republican League. These figures are taken from the enrollment lists of the league, which now has headquarters in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Pittsburg and San Francisco. The organization of this league, the influence of which will be significant in the November election, is the result of a little more than six weeks' work. That it has become Nation-wide is due largely to the activities of Rudolph Spreckles, the wealthy San Francisco reformer, who has spent the past ten years in an uncompromising war on all forms of graft and governmental dishonesty; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the government's former Chief Chemist, and Senator John J. Blaine, of Wisconsin, law partner of Senator LaFollette and chief aide of the Senator in his fight for the Republican Presidential nomination. These men, like many thousands of Senator LaFollette's loyal supporters, were deeply disappointed at the failure of the Republican convention to name a progressive candidate. Not realizing on the hopes of Senator LaFollette, they would have been satisfied with a progressive of the type of Governor Hadley, of Missouri, or Senator Cummins, of Iowa. They declined to follow Col. Roosevelt out of the Republican party because they had no sympathy with the Third Term movement. The fight to purge the Republican party of its reactionary element should be made within the party, they held, and not as adherents of the colonel, who to the former LaFollette supporters is in no sense a progressive.

Soon after the Chicago convention Rudolph Spreckles called a meeting of a group of leading progressive Republicans in Chicago. In addition to Dr. Wiley and Senator Blaine, Mr. Spreckels consulted with Senator LaFollette and Louis Brandeis, the noted lawyer and reformer. They gave their warm indorsement of the league movement. Other meetings were held in San Francisco, New York and Chicago, the result of which was a decision to support Governor Wilson because he in the judgment of the league members, represented the highest type of progressive leadership.

VERDICT AGAINST THE CITY.

Mrs. Sarah E. Craig Awarded Damages in Sum of $250 by Jury.

After deliberating for four or five hours the Superior Court jury which had in hearing the case of Mrs. Sarah E. Craig and husband, Chas. Craig, against the City of Wilmington, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $250. The amount sued for was $5,000 and was for alleged personal injuries received by the plaintiff, Mrs. Craig, when she fell on the sidewalk on Castle street, between Fifth and Sixth, in November, 1910. She claims to have sprained her ankle and alleges that the fall was due to a defect in the sidewalk.

In the case of Hall & Pearsall, Inc., against Brewer & Covington, judgment was given for $223.82 with interest from May 24th, 1911. Judgment of non-suit was signed in the case of the Navassa Guano Co., against R. M. Roseboro. Wm. Page, white, was granted a divorce from his wife, Olla Page Kellum & Loughlin represented the plaintiff.

Soon after court convened yesterday morning announcement was made that the case of R. N. Carney against M. J. Heyer, the trial of which was scheduled to begin yesterday morning, had been settled out of court. The plaintiff was suing for $20,000 for alleged injuries received by a fall through the elevator shaft of the Southern Building about two years ago. The plaintiff wak janitor at the building. Kellum & Loughlin represented the plaintiff, while J. D. Bellamy & Son, Rountree & Carr and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared for the defendant.

The case of Minerva Simmons against Wesley McMillan, et al., an action involving the ownership of a house and lot now occupied by Wesley McMillan, consumed most of the day. The case will go to the jury this morning. Stacy & Kenan represent the plaintiff, while ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appear for the defendant. The parties to the action are all colored. When this case has been given to the jury the case of R. H. Everett against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company will be taken up. The plaintiff is suing for $20,000 damages for alleged injuries received while at work for the defendant as brakeman on February 17th, 1910. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Herbert McClammy, Esq., represent the plaintiff, while Davis & Davis appear for the defendant company.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Only Two Cases for Trial Yesterday—Whiskey Cases Continued

There were only two cases on the Recorder's court docket yesterday morning for trial. T. A. Walker, a white man, was charged with disorderly conduct at his home on Campbell street, between Second and Third, Tuesday night. It appeared to be only a family row and the defendant was let ol upon payment of the costs. Carrie Bethea, colored, was fined $10 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Della Cobb, colored, who was convicted at Tuesday's session, of violating the prohibition law, case being held open for judgment, was sentenced to 60 days on the county farm. The Recorder was somewhat puzzled as to what disposition to make of the case as the defendant had a young baby, but after considering the matter over night decided it would be best for her to spend a period of two months on the farm.

Cases against Robert Miles, Jim Young and Ed. Green, all colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, were continued until today.

Robt. Everitt, a white man, was not present to answer a charge of larceny by trick, preferred against him by a man living near Southport, in Brunswick county. A capias was issued for him.

Selling Whiskey Charged.

Charged with violating the prohibition law, Bertha Gause, a colored woman, was arrested at 10:30 o'clock last night at her home in A. B. C. Alley and in default of bond was lodged in the city prison to await hearing this morning. It is alleged that she sold two half pints of whiskey to Will Faison, colored, and Plainclothesmen Frank George and B. W. Jacobs are said to have witnessed the sale. A search of the woman's place revealed the presence of 28 half pints of whiskey.

Meeting at Brooklyn Church.

Large congregations continue to greet Rev. J. W. Ham in the revival meeting at Brooklyn Baptist church and great interest is shown. He preached a strong sermon last night and was given very careful attention. This afternoon the usual Bible study will be held and the evening services begin at 7:30 o'clock.

DISCUSS GENERAL STRIKE.

Georgia Trainmen Will Meet Today—May Involve 15,000.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 9.—The possibility of a general strike on all the railroads out of Atlanta and involving about 15,000 employes, will be discussed at a conference of representatives of the railroad workers here tomorrow. Alleged violations of neutrality laws, in aiding the Georgia Railroad and Atlanta Joint Terminals Co., is charged against the other lines.

According to representatives of the striking trainmen of the Georgia road, the question of the reinstatement of the terminal "sympathy" strikers has been lost sight of in the larger proposition involving the other roads. These roads include the Louisville & Nashville, Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis; Atlanta & West Point; Atlantic Coast Line; Central of Georgia; Southern Railway and Seaboard Air Line.

United States Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill, who is acting as mediator between the strikers and the Georgia Railroad, was in conference here today with C. A. Wickersham, of the Terminal board of control, but returned to Augusta tonight. It was stated that no definite agreement was reached as to the attitude of the terminal towards its striking employes.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Announcement was made at the 17th annual Virginia State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy which opened its three days' sessions here today, that Virginia would lead all other States in point of voting strength at the society's National convention in Washington in November with 302 votes.

REMINGTON UMC

AUTOLOADING SHOTGUN

The Remington Cuts pick the only easy single loader.

For singles—trap or field—

just toss in a shell, press the button and—"PULL." The side bolt makes it easy. You don't have to tug at the barrell or watch an on-and-off device. The action stays open after each single shot is fired.—It always stays open when the magazine is empty. Five shots—three to get the cripples—each under absolute control of the trigger finger. The recoil reloads for you—kicks another shell in; takes the strain off the gun—the discomfort out of the kick—all without diminishing the drive behind the shot.

Simple take-down—a few turns of the readily handled magazine screw-cap makes cleaning, carrying and interchange of barrels quick and easy.

Send for a motion picture booklet telling how the kick is used—how a friction device found only on the Remington-UMC Autoloading Shotgun takes the punishment out of heavy loads.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Question of Freight Rates to North Carolina—Seaboard's President In Raleigh—Other Notes Of Interest

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—Chairman Franklin McNeill, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, returning today from Washington where he and Commissioners E. L. Travis and W. L. Lee had a special conference with members of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, is much pleased with the result of their visit. They are pressing upon the Inter-State Commission the matter of enforcement of the fourth section of the Inter-State Commerce act with a view to getting lower freight rates for North Carolina points on the principal that the rate from New York, for instance to Charlotte must not be greater than the rate from New York to an intervening "gateway city" and by reshipment to Charlotte.

The railways petitioned for exemption from this effect of the fourth section and the North Carolina Commission is urging now that it be put into force, thus giving much relief to North Carolina shippers. Also the commissioners took up with the inter-State commissioners in Washington the matter of having correspondingly reduced freight rates to other North Carolina shipping points as those secured from Winston-Salem and Durham in the suit for the Commission against the Norfolk & Western involving discriminations against these terminal points of the N. & W., as compared with rates given by the N. & W. to Virginia cities.

County Superintendent of Schools W. M. Hinton, of Pasquotank county, reports to the State Department of Education another local tax district carried by a large majority for the improvement of public schools.

Charters are issued for The Winston Sheet Metal Co., of Winston-Salem, capital $50,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by W. W. White, W. F. Pettycord and C. H. Agee, and for the Dunn Insurance Co., of Dunn, Harnett county, capital $10,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by D. H. Hood and others.

Information received at the State Department of Insurance indicates a very general observance of "Fire Prevention Day" today in most of the cities and towns in the State with special meetings and inspections of flues and other conditions that effect fire waste.

President W. J. Harahan, of the Seaboard Air Line, here on his first inspection of the lines of the Seaboard since his elevation to the presidency, says he knows absolutely nothing of any plan for a short-cut via Durham, from Henderson to Bonsal or thereabouts for saving distance as compared with the line via Raleigh. In the party with President Harahan are Vice President and General Manager C. H. Hix, General Superintendent J. M. Shea, Chief Engineer W. L. Seddon, and others.

The Wake county Bull Moosers in convention here with Lester Butler, brother of ex-United States Senator Butler, as chairman, have named a full legislative and county ticket. It has George M. Glenn, of Raleigh, for the Senate, and R. L. Sorrell, H. H. House and J. H. Powell for the House. The relative strength of the Taft and Bull Moose forces in this county is problematical and the Democratic leaders declare that there were never finer prospects for a record-breaking Democratic vote.

Everything is still in the air as to the award of the contract for the $25,000 enlargement of the postoffice and government building here, and the matter of quarters for the postoffice and other government offices while this work is in progress. The bids for the contract for the building were opened October 1st but there has been, so far as is known here, no actual award by the Washington authorities. There were no bids at all for quartering the departments of government while the work is in progress on the building. And the custodian, Collector Wheeler Martin, has put it up to the government that there is necessity to wait until some building adequate for housing all the departments can be completed. It is believed here by many that this course will be followed by the government.

CLAIMS LOSS OF $33,000,000

Express Companies Would Lose This Under New Rate, They Say

New York, Oct. 9.—A net loss of $33,000,000 a year in the revenues of the express companies and railroads would result from putting into effect express rates proposed by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, according to figures submitted by the companies to the commission today at a public hearing.

This loss, it was estimated, would be substantially evenly divided between the express and the railroad companies. It was asserted by counsel for the express companies that the commission rates practically would put their clients out of business.

The hearing was attended by about 300 representatives of express and railway companies and by attorneys for many commercial organizations and shippers.

The shippers generally approved the commissions suggested rates, although in one or two instances they were believed to be too high.

LITTLE CHILD KILLED

Hit by Passenger Train—Negro "Borrowed" Car and Took Joy Ride

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 8.—The five-year-old daughter of Thomas Manning, a white section hand on the Atlantic Coast Line, was instantly killed by a passenger train due to arrive here at 7:45 P. M., from Parmele, Sunday evening near Whitehurst. Speeding over the rails in the darkness, the engineer did not see the little girl, who, probably unconscious of the train's approach, was standing in the middle of the track. The fender struck the child, throwing her clear of the track. The mother of the girl was hastening to her when the locomotive struck her, and the little body was flung out from the rails almost into the woman's arms. When the mother stooped to the baby's side she was dead. Trainmen and passengers carried the child's body to the home, a short distance away.

Benjamin Harris, a colored chauffeur, was arrested on the road between Farmville and Greenville by the chief of police of the former town, who ran Davis down in an automobile. The negro had taken the car of his employer, Mr. W. M. Lang, of Farmville, without his permission and gone on a joy trip to Greenville. When the owner found that his machine was gone from the garage, he notified the police and Chief Smith followed Davis in another car. The negro had applied the "gas" lavishly, and things had gone smoothly enough until a short distance from Greenville, when it became necessary for him to stop the auto and do some tinkering. He was surprised by the officer, who came up as he emerged from beneath the balky car. In the tonneau of the car two dusky maids reclined luxuriously. They had enjoyed the trip immensely until the imperative tone of the officer's voice warned them there was trouble ahead. Davis was taken back to Farmville by the chief of police, while the women, his "cousins," he said, were left in Greenville to return as best they might. The driver had forgotten to get the owner's permission, he claimed, while the officer said he knew full well he would not have obtained permission and risked the owner's ire without dreaming of such dire results as ensued.

Mr. Albert E. Rountree, of this city, secretary of the North State Life Insurance Company, is in receipt of a notice from W. A. Lindly, president of the American Life Convention, that he has been appointed a member of the standing committee on miscellaneous subjects. This is one of the important committees of the convention, and the assignment of Mr. Rountree to it is considered quite an honor for the local man.

Capt. W. L. Kennedy and wife, Mrs. Emily H. Kennedy, have sold their valuable Bear Creek plantation, near Seven Springs, to Mark Morgan, of Scotland county, for a consideration of $26,500. The plantation contains 523 acres, and is one of the finest country places in Lenoir county.

Richard Beaman, colored, was remanded to jail by Justice Peebles after a hearing in the Court House here in default of $500 bond, for an attempted assault on 11-year-old Callonie Smith, of his race. The crime occurred on Vernon Heights, the city's northern suburb, about 10 days ago and the girl's condition was so bad as to delay the preliminary hearing for that time. Beaman, a middle-aged negro, was a boarder at the home of the girl's parents, and attacked her while the father and mother were away.

An iguana, the first of the species ever seen here, consigned to Geo. Gray's animal exhibit on South Queen street, arrived yesterday, but the creature did not survive the long journey from Buffalo, the point of shipment. The specimen was of fair size, being about two feet in length. The iguana sometimes grows to five and six feet in length, and is the largest of the lizard tribe. It is a native of the tropical Americas, is arboreal in habits, and feeds principally on fruits. Its color is a dull green. The reptile is being embalmed by a local taxidermist, and will be placed on exhibition. It has been a subject of much interest, and will be placed on exhibition for public view.

POLITICS IN COURT

Cross-Examination In Wayne Superior Court—Hearty Laughter

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 9.—Yesterday in the Superior Court of Wayne county, Judge Ferguson presiding, during the trial of a young man from the Fremont section of the county, who through his counsel, E. W. Hill, the leader of the Bull Moosers of this section, had put in the plea of insanity, and had among his witnesses to establish the mental condition of his client that excellent physician and enthusiastic Simmons Democrat, Dr. Hayes. After Mr. Hill had qualified the doctor as an expert, and examined him, he turned him over to Mr. W. T. Dortch for cross-examination. Mr. Dortch is also an ardent supporter of Senator Simmons, and after asking the doctor one or two questions, he fixed him with his eye, and said, "Now doctor, I have one more question to ask you, and if you answer it correctly, I will not continue my cross examination."

The doctor threw himself back, grabbed his chair with one hand, and the railing in front with the other, and settled himself for an abstruse question of medical jurisprudence, when Mr. Dortch asked, "Who, in your opinion will be the next Senator from the State of North Carolina?" Quick as a flash came the answer, "Senator F. M. Simmons."

"Right you are," said Mr. Dortch, as he gracefully waved him off the stand. The court joined in the hearty laughter that followed.

NICARAGUAN SITUATION

Normal Conditions Have Been Restored—Peace Re-established

New Orleans, October 9.—Juan J. Zavala, Nicaraguan consul here, received a cablegram tonight from the Nicaraguan minister of foreign relations at Managua, announcing that peace had been re-established there. The cablegram gave no details.

Consul Zavala interpreted the message as meaning that normal conditions have been restored.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET.

Mass Meeting Called in Beaufort—Competitive Drill—Speakings.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 9.—A mass meeting of the Republicans of Beaufort county is called to be held in the county court house in this city on next Friday, October 11th, at 10:30 A. M. for the purpose of holding a regular convention, electing a county executive committee and chairman and to consider the advisability of nominating a candidate for the Legislature and candidates for the different county offices. The Republicans in each precinct have been urged to send delegates and from present indications there will be a large crowd present. Hon. Thos. Settle and David H. Blair will address the citizens on this occasion.

The Sixth Division of the North Carolina Naval Militia, under the command of Lieut Charles Lamb Morton, Company G, North Carolina National Guard, of this city, and the Washington Concert Band, are all making extensive preparations to leave for Newbern on October 29th, where they will participate in the competitive drills, etc., during the Newbern fair. It is understood that a handsome silk flag will be awarded the winning company. Both the Naval Reserves and the military company are practicing assiduously for the coming drills and Washington hopes to carry off the honors as the successful contestants.

Messrs. Z. M. Potts, R. Lee Stewart, John W. Oden and John G. Bragaw, Jr., all enthusiastic lovers of baseball, are now in New York attending the world's series of baseball games between New York and Boston.

Hon. Lee S. Overman, United States Senator for North Carolina, will address the citizens of Washington in the county court house in this city next Thursday evening, October 10th, at 8 o'clock. Senator Overman's record speaks for itself and our citizens hail his coming to Washington with much pleasure and a large crowd will hear him on next Thursday, when he addresses his audience on the different political issues of the day.

Hon. W. M. Bond, one of the most gifted orators of Eastern Carolina, will address the citizens of Washington in the court house at noon next Monday, October 14th. Mr. Bond is a very ardent admirer of Senator Simmons.

ADJUTANT GENERALSHIP

Maj. J. J. Bernard Appointed to Assist Major Gordon Smith

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—Announcement is just made of the assignment of Major J. J. Bernard, of Raleigh, to duty in the North Carolina National Guard headquarters as assistant adjutant general by acting Adjutant General Gordon Smith. This is taken to mean that there will be no appointment by Governor Kitchin, of an adjutant general to succeed the late Gen. Leinster, who died recently and that Major Smith will continue acting adjutant general until Hon. Locke Craig succeeds Governor Kitchin and makes the appointment for his administration.

Major Bernard is an officer of the line and has been prominently mentioned for the Kitchin appointment as adjutant general along with Major Peirce, of Goldsboro; Major Glenn Brown, of Greensboro, and others.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The Oldest Blood Disease

The most ancient history furnishes evidence that mankind suffered with Contagious Blood Poison. The disease has come down through all the ages and is to-day, as it has ever been, a scourge and blight upon humanity. The symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison are the same as in its earliest history, but its cure has now become an accomplished fact, whereas, it was once considered an incurable infection. S. S. S. is an antidote for the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, and cures it in all its forms and stages. S. S. S. possessing both purifying and tonic properties routs out all the poison, and at the same time builds up the general health. A person who has been cured of Contagious Blood Poison by the use of S. S. S. need not fear a return of its symptoms at any future time. This great medicine checks the progress of the poison and gradually but surely all sores and eruptions heal, ulcerated mouth and throat pass away, the hair stops falling out, copper-colored splotches fade away, and when the blood is thoroughly purified no sign of the disease is left. Home Treatment book and any medical advice free.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress. March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Thursday, October 10, 1912.

The minority has the idea that the majority is reactionary.

The most ancient crockery consists of various kinds of family jars.

What is a platform good for after it has been repudiated by the people?

Bombastic, buncombistic and browbeating spielers are like quarter horses in a mile race.

What has become of the old fashioned gentleman who used to get very much stirred up over anti-imperialism?

Governor Marshall, who is to be the Democratic Vice President, says things. "Why must the consumer be the goat?" he inquires. Yes, why?

The Charlotte Chronicle says "a laugh cannot be answered." How about curling your lip in scorn and answering it with contemptuous disdain?

The Bull Moose says he is the "naked issue." He probably was but recently the Platt investigation committee has covered his nakedness with slime.

The egotistic politician discounts the intelligence of his audience and the intelligence in the audience takes little stock in the egotist who thinks he knows more than the smartest man to whom he is talking.

Since Roosevelt has called so many men liars without proving it, nobody believes that he knows a real liar when he sees one trying to dodge responsibility for the Republican slush fund of the 1904 campaign.

Republican campaign spielers in the North are telling the people that tariff reform in this country is being financed by British gold. The orators do not give the people credit for progressiveness in intelligence.

The Third Termer says he will quit replying to the slush fund charges. They are not charges. They have been proven before the Senate investigation committee and there is no longer any need to deny the sworn record.

Judge Parker completely answers those who try to make him a reactionary when he isn't anything of the kind. The difference between Parker's progressivity and that of others is that his is deliberative and theirs is hysterical.

The old fashioned politicians used to boast that they would "call a spade a spade" and "hew to the line let the chips fall where they may." Modern politicians think they can "hit the nail on the head" by striking at each other with "the spear that knows no brother."

As Governor of his State an able North Carolinian has more opportunity to do a greater work for his State than he can hope to do in the United States Senate where Senatorial records are scarcely remembered after the average Senator has gone to his grave.

Most so-called Progressives are politicians who think they have discovered a new kind of jimmy with which to break into an office. The man with convictions fixed on fundamental principles will be here when the ismistic pirouters will occupy a lonesome spot in the political graveyard.

The Hon. Thomas Settle and the Hon. David H. Blair are making all sorts of charges against the Democratic party. They do it for the same reason that a Democrat makes charges against another Democrat—to get in. It strikes us that an "out" of any kind who hankers after getting in depends mostly on strategem, subterfuge and chicanery.

IT IS A TRUST PROPOSITION.

Last Monday in a speech at Pueblo, Colo., Governor Woodrow Wilson declared that "the Steel Trust is behind the third party programme in regard to the regulation of trusts." At Albany N. Y., on Tuesday night Col. Roosevelt called upon Wilson either to prove or retract his statement. Col. Roosevelt declared:

"As far as I know the statement has not the slightest foundation in fact. Mr. Wilson has no business to make such a statement unless he has the proof, and if he has any proof I demand that he make it public immediately. If he has not, let him retract his statement as the only manly and honorable thing to do. As far as I know, the only big man connected with either the Steel Corporation or the Harvester Trust who is supporting me is Mr. Perkins. As far as I know, all the others in both the Steel Corporation and the Harvester Trust are supporting either Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson."

In his speeches on Tuesday at Topeka and in Kansas City on Tuesday night, Governor Wilson reiterated that the United States Steel Corporation is "behind the third party in thought." Governor Wilson explained what he meant and said Roosevelt must have interpreted his remarks to mean that the trust is back of him with money. The Democratic nominee said:

"I understand from the newspapers that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel Corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts. He interpreted my remark to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money. I do not know whether they are supporting him with their money or not; it does not make any difference. What I meant was they are supporting him with their thought and their thought is not our thought. I meant and say again that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control the United States Steel Corporation wants. I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be controlled."

Governor Wilson hit the nail on the head when he said that, but he may as well have said all the trusts are "in thought" or sympathy with the Roosevelt plan for regulating trusts, and to that extent they are surely behind him. However, the reverse seems to be true, for Roosevelt is behind the trusts instead of the trusts behind him. No doubt, it is both ways, but it is an indisputable fact that Roosevelt is advocating a trust policy which originated with the trusts. His plan now is the original plan of Big Business, for as far back as the McKinley administration Big Business committed itself to that plan before the McKinley Commission. Big Business is composed of trust people and as Roosevelt's plan is their plan, it is quite natural that they are now behind him since he proposes to carry out the plan which they originally suggested. The New York World says when Governor Wilson stated that the trusts were behind the Third Termer's trust regulation scheme "he stated an undeniable truth." Says the World:

"The trust programme of the Third Term party is the same programme that Judge Gary and other high officials of the United States Steel Corporation have been advocating for years. It is true that some of the financiers in the Steel Trust are against Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Frick, for example, is supporting Mr. Taft, and Mr. Morgan is on the fence; but those are personal matters. Naturally the Steel Trust believes in the sort of Federal regulation that gave it the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company and suspended the Sherman law for its benefit."

The World has a good memory and doubtless if it would investigate it will ascertain the fact that most every trust in the country would agree with Mr. Gary and Col. Roosevelt. We know Mr. George W. Perkins does, for we have a pamphlet sent us several months ago in which Mr Perkins expressed the same views. Mr. Perkins is consistent, for he is following the candidate who has the plan that suits him.

Governor Wilson is safe in his statement and his explanation that the trusts are with Roosevelt "in thought" (concurring with the idea) is all that is necessary. The people have not demanded any such regulation as the third termer favors, but Big Business has done so, for it was suggested by them ten or twelve years ago. The Roosevelt plan to incorporate and legalize what the law now makes illegal and to permit an industrial commission to have charge of them, is the very thing the trusts want. They want government recognition and to be free from interference by the State. They would like to have a commission to regulate them the way they prefer to be regulated.

ARMAGEDDON'S PLUNDERERS

A man who will steal is a criminal and a party which steals must be the same. They are in the same class, and we cannot see why if one is a thief the other is not. It is none of our funeral and we have no tears to shed because the Bull Moose party persists in allowing itself to start out in life by taking what belongs to another party. Nevertheless, the Third Term party, while pretending to virtue, truth, honor and high ideals, has done what no other party has yet done. It stole the Republican organization in several States, and even the courts do not seem to be able to restore the stolen property. Whereupon, the New York Tribune (Rep.) thus laments:

"Under the terms of an iniquitous primary election law the Republicans of California have been deprived of the right to vote for the Republican party's candidates for President and Vice President. Supporters of the National candidates of another party, having got control of the Republican machinery, have used it to exclude from the official ballot nominees for electors pledged to Taft and Sherman. The time having passed for filling by petition an independent Taft and Sherman ticket, the Republicans of the State are left completely plundered and dispossessed. The only way in which they can support the National ticket will be to write the names of thirteen candidates for elector in the blank space on the official ballot."

This means that so far as California is concerned the Republican party has no standing before the law. It has been robbed out of house and home and it has to appear in the voting as an independent party. Even to place thirteen Taft electors on the ballots may bring about a legal squabble which might by no means result in favor of Taft. Therefore, the best thing the California Republicans can do to be sure of Roosevelt's defeat would be to vote for Woodrw Wilson. The decision says:

"The Supreme Court of California has unanimously decided that under the law no remedy exists for the theft of the Republican column on the official ballot by the supporters of Roosevelt and Johnson. But the court, through its Chief Justice, who delivered the opinion, felt obliged to condemn the law as unfair and oppressive. Said Chief Justice Beatty: 'It disfranchises absolutely the voters of this State and deprives them of the free exercise of their functions as independent voters.' Yet the court could not find a way out. The disfranchisement, it held, was 'not justifiable' morally, but it was 'the law,' and the court was obliged to respect the plain mandate of the Legislature.'"

The Tribune expresses what all high-minded men will think about a party which commits such a deed and which seems to glory in it. It is bad morals whether it cannot be reached by the law or not. The Tribune's opinion of it will be accepted by all honorable men, and we agree with it that "the moral sense of the Nation will revolt against those who knowingly profit by fraud, as well as those who actually practice it."

Although defeated in their suit the Republican managers have nevertheless won a gratifying and useful victory in eliciting a judicial declaration which puts the receivers of the stolen goods forever on the defensive. If the National candidates of the Progressive party are willing to be the beneficiaries of legalized robbery in California they will have a hard time squaring themselves in that State and in all the other States with those who believe in the "square deal" in politics. The highest court in California has declared "unjustifiable" the manipulation by which Republican candidates for elector have been kept off the Republican ticket. If Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Johnson can stoop to condone a sharp practice whose fraudulent intent is obvious to everybody their lofty professions of political virtue and social justice will have to be abandoned. They are seeking to profit by a defective and oppressive statute, which if applied against them would certainly excite their most savage censure.

TO MAKE THE COTTON PLANT PERENNIAL

"Cotton and Finance," published in New York by Theo. H. Price, in its issue of October 5th, contains an interesting reference to the fact that Waldemar Schultze, of Berlin, has patented a "new process for preventing degeneration of cotton plants." His purpose is to secure a plant which will not be necessary to plant every year, but which will retain its life and necessarily grow larger each year.

It is announced that experiments covering a series of graftings in East Africa encourage the prediction that "the great advantages of the Schultze process will cause a revolution in the cotton industry of the world owing to the economy effected in production cost."

It is pointed out that raising cotton from a perennial plant obviates the enormous cost of replanting, that "in lieu of the present three cleanings of the field annually necessitated, two only in the second year, and one merely superficial the third year, will be required; subsequent years calling for no attention in this direction. The promoters of the process are not yet prepared to say that it can be applied in countries subject to frost, although hopes are entertained that a frost-resisting plant can be cultivated.

Planting cotton every Spring would be a thing of the past in the South if such a cotton plant can be produced for this climate. We are pretty certain that a perennial plant can be secured for countries which have no frost, for during mild Winters in our cotton belt we have seen cotton plants retain life and spring forth with renewed vigor next season. It would be a great thing if we could get a plant which would stand frost like fruit trees which disrobe in Winter and put forth again in the Spring.

The Republican party says Democracy and Bull Mooseism are dangerous. Bull Mooseism says Democracy and Republicanism are twin brothers and can not be trusted. As a matter of fact, Bull Mooseism is the crybaby of Republicanism and logically the Democratic party is its uncle if it is the twin-brother of Republicanism. Bull Mooseism's origin is too recent for it to make the slightest pretensions to kinship with Democracy.

The Republican party split in two because it deserved to be broken to pieces in the interest of the masses. Retribution has overtaken that party because it made the people the prey of special interests. If the Republican party were fighting for the right it would be as solid as the Democratic party is today. The Democratic party is solid because it is right.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Mr. Chas. McKesson having declined to make the race for the Republicans in the Ninth District, the party is to meet to select a candidate. Mr. McKesson is postmaster at Morganton and knew he could not accept the nomination without resigning, yet he challenged Congressman Webb and pretended as if he was going to run until the department called him down.—Greensboro Record.

A New York Progressive newspaper declares that Democratic campaign managers are soliciting funds from English manufacturers, a statement which received a prompt and emphatic denial at Democratic headquarters. The charge of Bull Moose Hooker that Charles R. Crane had contributed $70,000 to Governor Wilson's pre-convention fund was refuted on the stand by Mr. Crane. Reckless mendacity appears to be the omnipresent characteristic of Armageddonites.—Columbia State.

The Hawkeye fellowship club of Chicago talked about the cost of living at a recent luncheon, and agreed that the main causes of increase are urban congestion and expensive modern means of distribution. "Back to the farm and back to the market basket," was the moral drawn. But a Chicago clothier added a word of condemnation for Schedule K and put the blame for the high cost of clothing on one woolen company. But he added that the cost of living is partly due to the fact that the average American has got too proud to wear a cheap suit. Perhaps it is not wholly pride, however, for Americans have been thoroughly taught that "a cheap coat makes a cheap man."—Springfield Republican.

Mr. Hugh MacRae, of Wilmington, secretary and treasurer of the finance committee for North Carolina of the Wilson campaign fund, sends The Observer a detailed list of the contributors to the fund to date. The grand total so far raised in North Carolina for the Democratic cause is $6,028.85. New Hanover county leads the list with $3,210.50. Of this sum, $2,000 was given by James Sprunt and Hugh MacRae in equal sums. Mecklenburg is a good second, with $1,228. Wake the capital county, the headquarters of the party, makes the splendid donation of $235, or $21 less than the county of Robeson. Some of the counties have contributed no money at all. We doubt if a second winnowing will be productive of any considerable increase in patriotism of the hard cash sort. North Carolina will do better in the matter of furnishing votes than it will do in furnishing cash.—Charlotte Observer.

The purchase of purchasable papers by the Republican campaign managers may seem like nothing more than a shrewd bit of business to obtain advertising, but it is an easy going idea of decency that will so accept it. Observe the contract which Louis N. Hemmerling offered to the publishers and had signed by them: "The undersigned agree that no article or advertising of any kind or nature will be published in this or any other page of our paper advocating the election of any candidate of any party for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States other than William H. Taft and James S. Sherman, their electors, and the Republican nominees for the different State offices." Freedom of the press" becomes an interesting fiction when a $1,000 gag can close newspapers to any discussion of rival candidates or opposite measures. The law which became effective October 1st requiring publicity of newspaper ownership and, to a certain extent, of newspaper operation has the appearance of a wise recognition of a public need when observed in the light of the above contract.—Chicago Tribune (Bull Moose.)

"KEEP THE RECORD STRAIGHT."

Mullins, S. C., Oct. 5.

Editor Morning Star:

I notice in your issue of even date "Already Wilmington has done much—even more than the whole State of South Carolina thus far." Please keep the record straight. The Columbia State has acknowledged through its columns over $6,000 and Charleston alone about $1,800. I am a reader of your paper and glad to see Wilmington doing so well for Governor Wilson.

Vapor Treatment for Catarrh Colds & Coughs

The HYOMEI vapor treatment is especially recommended in stubborn cases of chronic catarrh of long standing, but remember that the inhaler should be used daily as usual.

This treatment only takes a few minutes time before going to bed. Pour a scant teaspoonful of Booth's HYOMEI into a kitchen bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the results of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear.

This method is also used to break up the worst cold in the head over night.

A bottle of Booth's HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) costs 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy's and druggists everywhere. Complete outfit which includes the little pocket inhaler $1.00.

No stomach dosing; just breathe; it is guaranteed to end catarrh and all diseases of the breathing organs. Booth's HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) is Australian Eucalyptus combined with Listerian Antiseptics that destroy catarrh germs and soothe and heal the sore membrane.

RECORD BREAKING CROPS.

Bountiful Cereal Harvests Promised by Agricultural Department.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Never before have the great cereal crops of the United States been so bountiful as those of this year. Records of production for almost every cereal have been surpassed, in some instances by millions of bushels.

The October crop report of the Department of Agriculture issued today shows Spring wheat, oats, barley, rye and hay all have exceeded the best record productions, while the crops of corn and potatoes from present indications will be the greatest ever harvested.

Speaking of this great showing made by the country's farmers, James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, today said:

"The crops are the heaviest on record. The season has been favorable, but some credit is due to the wide efforts made in late years by the Federal government and the States to help farmers throughout the country to get better returns from the average acre.

"Twenty-eight million pieces of literature have been sent out by the department, in addition to the advices from the stations along these lines. So the farmers have been helped in producing their record breaking crops."

The features of the report are the enormous harvests of corn, oats and Spring wheat. More than three billion bushels of corn; almost a billion and a half bushels of oats, and 330,000,000 bushels of Spring wheat have been grown. The States in the Northwest are harvesting the greatest crops ever grown there.

"It looks as if we won't have to import any potatoes this year," said Secretary Wilson, in commenting on the record potato crop. "Indications are that the farmers will have 108,000,000 bushels more potatoes this year than last when, by reason of the short crop, large quantities were imported from Europe."

BAN ON SUNDAY FUNERALS

Methodist Conference Also Opposes Baseball and Auto Trips

Chicago, Oct. 8.—A report placing a ban on Sunday funerals and all Sunday amusements, including theatres, baseball and automobiling, was today presented to the Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Holding funerals on Sunday was deplored for the reason that "it makes a public occasion of a distinctly private matter."

The report states that "baseball is a magnificent game, but when played on Sunday it is an insult to Almighty God."

"Junketing through the country in a motor car on Sunday," says the report, "injures the influence of the Church and lowers the tone of Sabbath observance."

WILL IMPROVE ORANGE STREET

Council Grants Request of Citizens Living on That Thoroughfare—Only a Few Other Matters Yesterday

Responding to a request of the citizens living on that thoroughfare which has been urged at several sessions during the past few weeks, the City Council in regular weekly meeting yesterday morning decided to improve Orange street, from Sixth to Ninth. It was also decided to improve Sixth, from Grace to Harnett; Hanover, from Nutt to Fourth, Market from Eleventh to Twelfth, and Orange, from Front to Third streets, if there is sufficient money left on the bond issue fund.

The action with regard to street work featured yesterday's session. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Smith and all members were in attendance, also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, and Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., assistant city attorney. Mr. F. E. Hashagen and a delegation of citizens appeared with regard to the improvement of Orange street. The work will cost $2,800, according to estimates furnished by City Engineer F. F. Pillet and submitted to Council by Councilman P. Q. Moore.

Mr. Thos. H. Wright asked that Council re-open the proposition to drain 14th street, from Market to Princess streets, using a culvert. The Tidewater Power Company, he said, had given assurance that it would bear a pro rata portion of the expense. Mr. Wright was asked to confer with the city engineer and appear before the Council again later.

Mr. J. H. Brown, president of the Cape Fear Club, asked permission to erect a brick veneer club building at the southeast corner of Second and Chesnut streets, but when informed that this would be against the fire laws, he withdrew the request.

Mr. W. E. Worth asked to be given permission to put his front steps two and a half feet on the sidewalk on Orange, between Second and Third streets, stating that an abutting fence is already three feet on the street. No action was taken.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That in the absence of a satisfactory bid to do the carpentry work on the market house, the work will be done by day labor."

A resolution reading as follows was also adopted: "Resolved, That the Councilman on Accounts and Finance be authorized to borrow the sum of $10,000, or what amount is necessary to pay current bills pending the collection of taxes."

An appropriation of $1,500 was made to cover the cost of repairing the birdges over the railroad tracks on Fourth and Fifth streets.

WILL NOT GIVE BOND

Sewerage Company Gave Notice to This Effect Yesterday

Iredell Meares, Esq., local attorney for the bondholders of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, yesterday received a letter from Wm. F. Brown, Esq., the Philadelphia attorney for the bondholders, stating that the Wilmington Sewerage Company would refuse absolutely to give the $10,000 indemnity bond required by the city attorney to protect the city against any suits that might be instituted against the Wilmington Sewerage Company for 60 days after the date of the sale of the sewerage plant to the municipality. What action the city will take now remains to be seen. The Council may be called in special session to consider the matter. The city claims to be in possession of the plant, some of the tools having been delivered to the municipality, and it is certain that the Council has no idea of permitting the Wilmington Sewerage Co., to make any further excavations in the city for the purpose of putting in sewerage connections, but will make the connections desired with the men employed by the city for this purpose. The sewerage company apparently has nothing to gain by its present attitude. Rent for the present quarter is now due, but it is hardly likely that any one will pay anything further to the sewerage company, as the city will notify all patrons that no matter what is paid to the company it will not absolve the patrons from paying the city when the municipality formally comes in possession of the plant. Then, besides, it is said to be a known fact that the company cannot now give a deed for the property. According to law the deed of the corporation is not good for 60 days after it has been filed for registration. The requirement of the indemnity bond was for the purpose of allowing the sewerage company to collect the $30,000 the city promised to pay when the plant was formally turned over to it and a deed given. Further developments in the case will be awaited with interest.

Struck by Automobile

Margaret Gilbert, the four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gilbert, of No. 309 South Second street, was struck and run over by an automobile but not seriously injured yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The automobile was owned and driven by Mrs. James Howard and the accident occurred at corner of Front and Market streets. The machine was promptly stopped and the little girl was picked up. She was badly frightened, but beyond a few bruises was not injured. The little girl was down town with Mrs. Geo. E. EXTRA CLYDE LINE STEAMER

Regular Vessel Could Not Bring All Freight so Steamer Onandaga Arrives Today—Need Increase Wharf Facilities Also.

The increase of water freight between New York and Wilmington has been so great that the merchants of Wilmington have asked the Clyde Line Steamship Company for an extra steamship for the Wilmington traffic.

Some idea of the heavy water shipments for Wilmington may be had when it is stated that when the steamer Carib left New York on Friday for Wilmington she left 7,000 tons of Wilmington freight on her piers. In order not to disappoint the Wilmington patrons of the line, the Clyde Line people loaded the Wilmington shipments on the steamship Onandaga, which plies between New York and Brunswick, Ga. She is due here this morning, consequently Wilmington shippers will receive freight which would not have reached here till next Monday by the regular Wilmington steamer.

This means that the steamship Onandago will stop over at this port on her way to Brunswick, making a port of call. It is understood that the Clyde Line undertakes this as an experiment, since it is anxious to meet the requirements of transportation in the interest of its increased Wilmington patronage.

The Star is informed, however, that the limited capacity of the Clyde Line Company's warehouses at Wilmington are such that consignees must remove freights promptly in order to prevent congestion.

It is quite evident from this condition of affairs that there is not only a necessity for another steamer between New York and Wilmington, but that the pier and warehouse facilities of the Clyde Steamship Company here are inadequate for the company's increased business. While this is to be regretted in one particular, it is gratifying in another. It shows healthy commercial growth at Wilmington and indicates that the Clyde Line is being pressed to meet the demands of Wilmington's shippers. Wilmington should have that extra steamship and the Clyde Line must increase its docking and warehouse facilities at this port.

INTEREST IN !THE LECTURES

Large Congregation Heard Rev. L. S. Chafer at First Presbyterian Church Last Night—Afternoon Lecture.

Rev. L. S. Chafer, the Bible lecturer, was heard by a large congregation at the First Presbyterian church last night as he spoke on the subject, "The New Life in Christ", continuing his series of lectures on salvation. He also had a large congregation in the afternoon when he presented the divine plan of reaching the lost.

A synopsis of his lecture last night follows:

"Christ did not come to give men a new rule of life, or to give a new example of life. He came to give life. There is a vast difference between attempting to imitate Christ with our helpless fallen nature and actually receiving a new divine nature and life which will naturally live itself out in a true manifestation of the Christ. The world has taken Christ as an ideal pattern; but the truly saved person has taken Christ to indwell him and therefore possesses the new dynamic and sufficiency of Christ Himself. The Bible urges the saved one to let this indwelling life express itself; while the only issue before the unsaved is one of receiving the new life. There is no place for a mere imitation of Christ for either class.

"This new life is not possessed by the unsaved; for there is a great difference between immortality and eternal life. The eternal life reaches as much back in the past eternity as it reaches forward into the future eternity. This is true of the new life, for it is Christ Himself living in the saved one and was with the Father in the very beginning. This life is as much greater than immortality as Christ's life is greater than our mortal existence.

"An eagle may invite a mud turtle to fly in the blue dome of heaven, but the invitation will not be accepted unless some sufficient power can change the mud turtle into an eagle. Then he would not be flying in imitation of the eagle; but in the power of his new creation. Just so this wonderful change into the divine nature, by the new birth is everywhere in Scripture said to be just such a new creation. (II Cor. 5:14, and Gal. 6:15.)

"All of these great positions we are studying in these evening services are each one of them connected with the death of Christ. This is true of this one. 'The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord.' They are based on His death. For by His death He made a perfect basis and foundation for these perfect positions, and they are the immediate possession of every person when they are saved. They could never be worked up or purchased and are so called 'the gift of God.'

"We prove that we believe on Him when we stop depending on our own works and rest in His finished work for us. It is the solemn duty of every serious person to bring himself into searching judgment as to whether he has ever had any dealing with the Son of God in personality claiming a saving part in His atoning death. It is as bad for a church member to be lost as for anyone else, and good intentions and religious habits cannot take the place of the saving work of Christ."

Mr. Chafer's meetings are characterized by appeals to the mind and judgment, rather than to superficial emotions and he draws all his teaching directly from the Word of God. Many find a new interest in the Bible through these services, which continue twice a day over Sunday with the exception of Saturday.

MILLIE CHRISTINE DEAD

Famous Colored Twins, Born in Columbus County and Exhibited All Over the World, Pass Away at Their Home.

Word was received here yesterday afternoon that Millie, one of the celebrated Millie-Christine twins, known all over the world, had died at the home of the pair near Whiteville, Columbus county, and last night a message was received stating that Christine died at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, some hours after the death of the other. The twins were about 60 years old.

Born in Columbus county in slavery times the women, who were colored, were sold in their youth for $40,000 for exhibition purposes. While being shown in Philadelphia, a few years after their sale, they were stolen and nothing was heard of them by their owner for several years. Finally he located them in London and regained possession of them. He again placed them on exhibition and they appeared before many of the crowned heads of Europe as well as being exhibited throughout the old country and America. They were seen in Wilmington the last time with a carnival a year or two ago.

Millie-Christine had two heads and two sets of lower extremities, but only one body. What one disliked the other disliked, the same things made each sick, but they had their differences and were known to have quarreled with themselves.

They were the wonder of physicians, anatomists and biologists everywhere. On the stage they sang in chorus and danced. One head carried on a conversation with one person while the other carried on a different conversation with some one else. One could sing one thing, and the other something else, yet they were so completely one person that one could not perform any function without the other.

Millie-Christine was a puzzle. In many respects they were one personality, and in others they were two. They really appeared to be one person with two heads. A pain gave the other pain. It was a repetition of the end of the Siamese twins who died in North Carolina, at their home near Mt. Airy, one died while the other was asleep. When the live one was awakened and informed that the other was dead, he expired in a few minutes. Only a ligament at the side connected them, who were otherwise two perfectly formed men who had violent differences at times. Both the Siamese twins were married, and left families in Surry county, North Carolina.

Millie-Christine was a more wonderful being than the famous Siamese twins. They apparently had but one body, but evidently there were two. Each person, if there were two of them, had two hands and two legs and two feet, and yet anatomically she or they had only one body so far as close observations were concerned.

The women were reported to have been very wealthy.

Story From Clarkton

Clarkton, N. C., Oct. 9.—The world famous Millie-Christine twins died at their home about six miles from here in Columbus county yesterday and today. Millie died yesterday at 7 o'clock and Christine died this afternoon at 2 o'clock, thus one lived 20 hours after the other had passed away. These twins have a very interesting history, full of thrilling experiences and novel incidents, having traveled the world over during the past 63 years. The burial will take place tomorrow at 11 o'clock at the family burial grounds which are near Welch's Creek Baptist church, of which they were members or member as the case may be. The Millie-Christine twins were well developed, always presented a neat appearance and were genteel and polite in their treatment of the many who have from time to time visited them and always attracted the attention of people in every walk of life.

WRECK ON THE COAST LINE

Engineer Cornelius Maglenn Severely, But Not Seriously, Injured In Smash on W. & W. Railroad Yesterday

Engineer Cornelius Maglenn, one of the company's most popular young engineers, was severely, but not seriously, injured; five freight cars were demolished and the line was blocked to traffic for several hours yesterday morning as the result of a freight wreck a few minutes before 4 o'clock at Watha, N. C.

Extra through freight train No. 220 left Wilmington yesterday morning at 2:10 A. M., in charge of Engineer Maglenn and had proceeded as far as Watha, which is between Wilmington and Goldsboro, when through some misunderstanding a string of empty freight cars were left on the line by another train which was doing some shifting at the station. Engineer Maglenn's train dashed into the rear end of the train and the giant locomotive at the throttle of which he was seated ploughed its way through five of them before it came to a standstill. Engineer Maglenn stuck to his post and was knocked from his engine, sustaining a broken rib and other bruises, which will lay him up for several days, but which it is hoped will not result seriously. A wrecking train was sent to the scene from Wilmington and Mr. Maglenn was given medical attention by Dr. Carroll, of Wallace, being later brought to the home of his sister in this city on regular train No. 41, due here at 10 A. M., but which did not arrive until about noon. The northbound train out of Wilmington yesterday morning was also delayed.

Mr. Maglenn rested very well yesterday afternoon and last night at the home of his sister, Mrs. Austin Mcmick, No. 405 Walnut street, it was stated that he was much better, but naturally suffering from the nervous shock incident to the wreck.

CAPT. W. G. McRAE RESIGNS.

Gives Up Presidency of the Hospital Board—Mr. H. C. Bear Named.

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 9, 1912.

Capt. W. G. MacRae, of this city, who has held the position of president of the Board of Managers of the James Walker Memorial Hospital since his appointment by Mr. Walker, founder of the hospital, saw fit to tender his resignation on the 15th of November, 1911, and which has been lying over unacted upon by the board, as they were desirous of having Mr. MacRae withdraw the same and retain his position as president of the board and of the hospital. Mr. MacRae having finally decided that he desired to be relieved, the board with great regret on yesterday accepted his resignation. The management regretted exceedingly to take this action and it is with great sorrow that they dissolved the relations that have existed so pleasantly and for so many years.

the office of president of the Board of Managers of the hospital and also

Mr. Samuel Bear was elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. MacRae and will assume its duties at once. Mr. H. C. Bear was elected on the board of managers to supply the unexpired term of Mr. MacRae.

GEO. R. FRENCH, Secy.

The election of Mr. Sam Bear to the presidency of the Board of Managers will give peculiar pleasure not only to his hosts of friends in Wilmington but to the public generally. Mr. Bear's devotion to the hospital work, his keen business insight and ripe experience in the affairs of the institution will bring to the hospital an assurance of efficient and proper administration in all of its departments. He has been identified with the hospital from the date of its establishment as one of the city's appointees on the Board of Managers and his interest has never abated. It was through his philanthropy that the detention hospital was given as a memorial to the institution and his elevation to the presidency of the board is eminently fitting and proper in every respect.

The election of Mr. H. C. Bear to the board to fill a vacancy is also very pleasing to the public. Mr. Bear is a young man, but has always ranked as a public-spirited citizen and a man of affairs and executive training and ability. The hospital is fortunate and the people of Wilmington are fortunate in his selection.

BUYS JUNCTION RESTAURANT

Mr. "Jack" Newmann Becomes Purchaser of Leading Cafe

A deal was concluded yesterday by which Mr. "Jack" Newmann, well and favorably known by a host of Wilmington friends, purchased from the owner, Mr. George H. Hutaff, the Junction Restaurant, on Princess street, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $3,000. The "Junction," as it is popularly known, was established seven years ago by Messrs. Hutaff and E. A. Herbst, the latter retiring from the firm several months ago to take charge of the Colonial Inn. Mr. Hutaff then became the sole owner and proprietor and has conducted it with signal success through Mr. Claude Brock, a capable manager, until yesterday when he decided that he has so many other interests that require his time that it would be best to dispose of his ownership in the restaurant. Mr. Hutaff, as is well-known, controls the Coca-Cola output in Eastern Carolina with upwards of a dozen bottling plants and also has large real estate investments and activities which require all his time.

Mr. Hutaff has made a number of improvements to the place and Mr. Newmann will make others, fitting up the Junction as a first-class restaurant in every respect and conducting it on the same high plane upon which it has been conducted since its establishment a little over seven years ago. The transfer of the property took place yesterday and elsewhere in today's paper Mr. Hutaff gives notice that all persons having claims against the restaurant are requested to present them at once for payment.

PRIZES ARE ANNOUNCED

Given by Health Department for Best Kept Yards and Premises

The city health department has made announcement of the prize winners in the contest for the best kept yards and premises during the Summer months. Mr. D. L. Gore, early in the Summer gave the department $100 and the superintendent of health decided to divide the amount into prizes and two or three contests were held.

The names of the winners in the last contest, each of whom received a substantial cash award, were Mr. William Koch, No. 409 North Ninth street; Mrs. J. P. Stevens, No. 909 Chesnut street; Mr. H. M. Millinor, No. 2 Oak avenue, and Miles Carroll, colored, No. 201 South Twelfth street, and Lizzie Wall, colored, No. 918 North Second street.

That much interest was taken in the contest can be told by the generally clean and healthy condition in which scores of yards of the city can be seen. The money was divided, $25 being offered for the biggest piles of trash removed from yards during the month of June, and the balance for the greatest amount of refuse collected durtug August.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—After four close heats, Dorsh Medium, the fourth horse driven by "Pop" Geers to capture that prize, won the Walnut Hill cup here today at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association races. J. Howard Ford's Lord Allen, driven by McDonald, won the Kentucky futurity for two-year-old trotters in two straight heats.

MISS MAYBELLE HOWARD BRIDE OF MR. L. U. LEWIS.

Of pleasing interest to a host of friends here and elsewhere is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Maybelle S. Howard, a popular and most attractive young lady of this city, and Mr. L. U. Lewis, a well known engineer of the Atlantic Coast Line. They were married at half after six o'clock yesterday evening at the manse of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, the pastor, officiating. Conforming to the wishes of the bride and groom, the ceremony was very quiet, but withal was very pretty and impressive. The bride's only attendant was Miss Annie Futch, a relative, and the groom had as his best man Mr. Bernard Maglenn. After the wedding, the young people received the happy congratulations of a number of intimate friends who were present and later took their departure on the northbound A. C. L. train for the North. They will return in about ten days and be at home to their friends on Red Cross street.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

One of the prettiest wedding of the season and one holding much interest for a large circle of friends was solemnized at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, when Miss Henrietta Elise Fick, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nicholas Fick, Sr., became the bride of Mr. Rudolph Henry Gieschen a well known and popular young man, connected with the local offices of the Atlantic Coast Line.

The church was thronged with admiring relatives and friends long before the arrival of the wedding party. Mrs. E. Schulken presided at the organ and rendered the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered the church. First came Miss Katheleen Gieschen, a bridesmaid, followed by Messrs. Fred Banks and John Oldenbuttel, groomsmen; Miss Gesine Mohr, bridesmaid, followed by Mr. Ferdinand Duls and Louis Hansen. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Louise Fick, sister of the bride. Next to enter was the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The groom and his best man, Mr. Carl J. Fick, brother of the bride, entered from the vestry room and met the party at the altar, where the impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Beatty, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church. The party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was handsomely attired in white Roger messaline, trimmed in real lace and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore green crepe de chine trimmed with shadow lace and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids were gowned in white messaline with crystal trimmings and carried green maiden hair fern.

The church was most attractively decorated, having been in the hands of Mr. Wm. Rehder, a well known decorator. The colors were green and white.

Following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, 305 South Sixth street, where an informal reception was held. The couple left on the 7 o'clock train for a bridal tour to Washington, New York and other points in the North. Upon their return they will be at home after October 25th at No. 511 North Fifth street.

FIVE ALLEGED "CROOKS"

Midway at Highwood Park Proved Bad Place for Several Citizens Yesterday—Trial of Defendants Today.

Early yesterday afternoon five men giving their names as James Hooper, E. D. Bosewell, George Brayford, W. C. Pearce and M. H. Miller were arrested at Highwood Park on John Doe warrants charging them with larceny by trick and larceny from the person, three different persons being the complainants against the defendants. In default of $500 bond the defendants were committed to jail to await hearing this morning.

Some of the warrants were issued by Justice J. C. King and some by Justice W. A. McGowan. They were served by Deputy Sheriffs J. H. Davis and Reynolds. The hearings before Justice King takes place at 9 o'clock this morning and before Justice McGowan at 12 o'clock. The prosecution in all the cases is represented by W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., while some of the defendants will be represented by Scull & McNorton.

The complainants, who are alleged victims of the five men arrested, are Mr. C. C. Potter, of Wilmington, who was relieved of $55.25; Mr. E. A. Phelps, of Ash, Brunswick county, who lost $12, and his son, Rufus Phelps, who was held up and robbed of $65, after being lured to a remote part of the grounds. Several others are said to have lost heavily and a few have reported that they had their pockets picked. Among those in the latter class was Mr. J. A. Speagle, traveling representative of the Biblical Recorder, who was touched for $16. He told of another man who was touched for $12.

Mr. Potter claims that he lost his money around one of the many gambling devices said to be on midway. He was not there for the purpose of taking a chance and was drawn into the game only at the earnest solicitation of a man alleged to be the confederate of the man operating the game. Mr. Potter, it appears, was brought in as a "fill in" man and he was promised his money back, but when all his cash was exhausted and he asked for what he had already placed upon the device the confederate and operator both are said to have told him that he had nothing coming to him. When he began to protest in a loud voice he was commanded to hush and was offered $10 of the amount back. He refused this. Soon thereafter he came to the city, employed Mr. Turner and the warrants were issued.

About the same time Mr. E. A. Phelps lost $12 on one of the devices. Then five strangers invited Mr. Phelps and his son, Rufus, to go with them to a far side of the grounds to see a horse which had been killed the day before as the result of an accident on the race track. They went with the strangers. It is alleged that three of the men arrested were in the quintette. Arriving at the far side of the grounds Rufus Phelps was commanded to give over his purse, which contained $65. He complied with the request. The robbers were considerate enough to give him $1 back. This is regarded as one of the most high-handed crimes of this character ever committed in New Hanover county. Messrs. Phelps joined Mr. Potter in employing Mr. Turner to prosecute the men.

After the warrants had been issued the complainants went back to the grounds and were there to point out the men wanted when Officers Davis and Reynolds arrived. One of the defendants was playing a game when Officer Davis stepped up to him. He did not recognize Mr. Davis as an officer and asked him to join in winning some money from the operator. Mr. Davis declined the offer and waited until the stranger had played his money and then placed him under arrest.

The defendant came quietly, but at first claimed that they would have no trouble in giving bond. It was intimated last night that the complainants will probably have their money returned.

Papers were served on Dr. J. J. Crow and K. C. Sidbury, Esq., who are promoting the carnival of attractions ordering them to produce at the hearings today the contracts they gave the men under arrest in selling them concession space. It was said last night that unless the money is paid back to those who lost it that action may be instituted against Mr. Sidbury and Dr. Crow, who, it is understood, claim that they did not give any contracts for gambling devices and were not aware of any gambling on the grounds.

Mr. Speagle said that as soon as he entered the grounds a stranger approached him and asked if he had seen the airship. The two walked on toward midway together and the stranger was with him in a crowd. Soon afterwards he missed $16 from his pockets.

The Carnival.

The balloon ascension yesterday afternoon was a most successful affair and was witnessed by a large number. The balloon went ballooning and has not yet been found. The man came down all right in his parachute. There will be another balloon ascension this afternoon. Last night the biggest fireworks exhibition ever seen in this section was given. The attendance numbered about 500 people. All who attended praise the display of fireworks, which will be repeated tonight. Congressman Godwin arrives this morning and is scheduled to speak at the grounds at 3 o'clock. A sham battle between two divisions of troops from Fort Caswell will be fought on the grounds this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. The parade through the down town district takes place at 10 A. M.

There are only a few shows on midway and most of them are of a questionable character. They were so loud that the managers of the shows were told last night by Sheriff Cowan that certain objectionable features would have to be cut out. Sheriff Cowan and his deputies last night closed up three of the gambling devices. There has been much criticism of the character of the shows, or some of them, on midway.

The motorcycle races scheduled to take place yesterday afternoon at Highwood Park, were called off owing to the absence of prizes. Five motorists were on hand and some of them were determined to win at least a portion of the $35 which had been offered. The crowd in the grandstand, as well as the "motorcycle boys" were very much disappointed at the outcome of what had promised to be exciting sport. After it had been decided not to hold the races, the motorists did some classy practice work, considering the condition of the track. There was only one accident, and that was of minor nature, it happened when Mr. Irl T. Sell, driving his Merkle at an easy 50 miles, was rounding the curve on the east end. His driving chain flew off, wrapping around his leg and dragging him off the machine.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The regular weekly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this afternoon at 4 'clock in the rooms of the Chamber.

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. Geo. G. McCormick, of Whiteville, and Miss Sallie High, daughter of Mr. A. H. High, of Wilmington.

—The British steamer Mariston, Capt. Stubbs, cleared yesterday for Bremen with cargo of 12,392 bales cotton, valued at $744,000; cargo and vessel by Alexander Sprunt & Son.

—The revenue cutter Seminole left yesterday evening at 6:20 o'clock under hurry orders, but no information was given as to her destination. It is presumed she was summoned by wireless to some point on the coast to be of assistance to any shipping that may be in distress.

—The funeral of James Richard Dobbins, four-months-old son of Mrs. Alma Dobbins, who died Tuesday, was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence, No. 1215 South Second street, conducted by Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and interment was in Oak Grove cemetery.

—Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "F. McC. Dicus and L. Parker, of Wilmington, and Percy Forbes, of Greenville, were in the city yesterday en route in an automobile from Wilmington to Louisville, Ky. The young men had 'Bangs', an English setter, as a mascot, who did his riding on one of the steps of the auto. They report a pleasant trip so far."

"Faust" Saturday

Due to sickness in the company the Edyth Totten Company, which is this week filling a popular price engagement at the Academy of Music, could not appear last night, and as an appearance to night would be problematic it was decided to lay off until Saturday when the company will appear in a big revival of "Faust." This will indeed be a rare and great treat and theatre-goers may look forward with special interest to the performance, or, rather, performances, because it has been arranged to present Goehe's great dramatic creation at both matinee and night. Popular prices will prevail for each performance and in order to delight the school children they will be admitted to any part of the theatre for 10 cents. The matinee prices will be 10 and 20 cents, while the night prices will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats for the night performance will be on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning.

"Faust" will be presented with special scenic and electrical effects and a strong cast is promised. Miss Totten will be seen in the role of "Marguerite," while the "Mephisto" will be in the hands of an accomplished actor. ADD THEATRE -rETAOIN N N

At The Bijou

The Bijou is indeed going to make a big offering today, when it will present a great and fresh bill of films headed by a photoplay in which the popular actor, Maurice Costello, will appear as the star. The film is "The Adventure of the Smelling Salts" and it is a swell detective story. It is one of gripping interest and a thriller in every way. The plot is most unique and revolves around a woman smuggler. The trial leads over both land and sea, and Mr. Costello, who is a finished actor, will appear as "Lambert Chase," the detective.

Another big star today, something decidedly out of the ordinary, is "The Physician of Silver Gulch." In this film the star is a physician, who takes up his abiding place in a mining camp. Pressed for money he steals, and then unexpectedly is called upon to attend the sheriff's child. He works on the little patient and saves her life. Then comes the revelation that he is a thief, and the stand the sheriff takes under the circumstances is decidedly interesting as well as intense.

The other films are capital ones, and go to help make a glorious bill at the Bijou, where the price of admission never varies from 5 cents, afternoon or night. And along with it all goes the Bijou's many solid comforts, which are supreme.

Today at the Grand.

In spite of counter attractions the name and fame of the Grand Theatre continue to hold their own with the amusement lovers of Wilmington and each afternoon and evening the house is thronged by people who have come to expect something just a little bit above the extraordinary when they patronize this enterprise.

Today Mr. Leonard Chick will sing "On San Francisco Bay." This is a wonderful song written by that famous star, Gertrude Hoffman, and introduced by her in that great show, "Me, Him and I." This song is the sensation of New York's popular shows and should not be missed. In the moveys there will be two films of deep human interest. The one is an Edison, "The Usurer's Grip". There is a young clerk with his wife and family and a small salary. He needs money to make both ends meet and what transpires in his dealing with a money shark is vividly portrayed in the picture.

The other feature is a "Girl's Bravery" and it is a Lubin. It is the story of a picnic party and a girl's heroism. It is vividly portrayed and exceedingly well told in the film. Then besides these two there will be a third and all in all, the day at the Grand will compare with any of the big days of the past.

OPTION ON HIGHWOOD PARK

Mr. Sam Seigler, Jr., May Become Pnurchaser of Valuable Land

An option given by Dr. and Mrs. Morris M. Caldwell to Mr. S. Seigler, Jr., on Highwood Park and adjacent lands, the tract containing 57 acres, was filed for record yesterday morning. Mr. Seigler paid $500 down and if the title to the property is found to be free of all encumbrances he agrees to pay $21,500, which is the balance of the purchase price. It is understood that Mr. Seigler has already practically transferred his option to the real estate firm of D. R. Foster & Co., with which Mr. Seigler is connected.

Attempted to Commit Suicide.

Lillie Carter, a white woman living in Wescott's Alley, in the block surrounded by Church, Castle, Sixth and Seventh streets, attempted to commit suicide Tuesday night by swallowing a quantity of "rough on rats". It was reported to Patrolman H. P. Merritt, who in turn notified Dr. John Thames, assistant city superintendent of health. The doctor responded and the woman was soon out of danger after the necessary medical attention was rendered. Dr. Thames was quoted as saying that the woman did not swallow enough of the poison to produce death. It was stated that the woman told the doctor that she came to this city from Charlotte and that as the reason for her rash act that she was tired of living.

SHE SUFFERED TEN MONTHS

Mrs. Blankenship Tells of Her Restoration to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I have been restored to health and it has come from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what this medicine has done for me and I will always speak a good word for it."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Va., Montgomery Co.

Was Helpless—Now Well.

Trenton, Mo.—"About two years ago I had female trouble and inflammation so bad that I was literally helpless and had to be tended like a baby. I could not move my body or lift my foot for such severe pains that I had to scream. I was very nervous and had a weakness.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me to such an extent that I think there is no medicine like it for female troubles. I am up and able to do my work again and I give you full permission to publish my letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. [illegible] PURNELL, 320-10th St., Trenton, Mo.

COTTON REACHED LOW GROUND WAR NEWS ADVANCES WHEAT ANOTHER SETBACK IN STOCKS

Reports That Threatening Situation in Balkans Had Caused Withdrawal of Buying Started Selling Movement.

New York, October 9.—Reports that the threatening situation in the Balkans had caused a withdrawal of buying orders from European spinners, combined with continued good weather in the South, caused an active selling movement in the cotton market today, under which prices broke into low ground for the session.

Covering checked the decline, and caused rather a sharp rally in the late trading, with the close firm, although last prices still showed a net loss of from 5 to 10 points.

The market opened easy at a decline of 8 to 12 points, in sympathy with lower Liverpool cables and active months sold about 12 to 13 points under last night's closing figures during the early trading. The developments in the European political situation appeared to be causing a good deal of evening up. Covering on this account gave the market considerable support, and there were rallies of 6 or 7 points from the lowest during the middle of the morning.

After the close of Liverpool had shut out arbitrage business, demand here became less active and the market again weakened.

Reports that Liverpool had been depressed by heavy selling against actual, as well as by continental liquidation, and hedging there was local pressure on the break to a net loss of about 17 to 19 points.

At 10.55 for January, realizing by early sellers checked the decline, and the market later rallied 10 or 12 points from the lowest on quite an active demand from shorts, who appeared apprehensive that the unsettled weather and lower temperatures reported Northwest of the belt would work down into the cotton country before the end of the week.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands, 11.10; do. gulf, 11.30; sales, none.

Futures closed firm.

Fortunes In Faces

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Abbottsburg, N. C., Oct. 9.—The residence of Mr. Z. G. Thompson was destroyed by fire Saturday between 12 and 1 o'clock. A convention had luckily assembled in the town at the time and most of the household effects were saved. Help was rendered also in keeping the flames from doing other damage in the town.

Foreign Developments in Regard to the War Scare Responsible—Dealings Showed Declines of Two Points.

New York, Oct. 9.—Foreign developments were responsible for another setback in the stock market today. The Balkan situation caused demoralization in Paris, increased the settlement prevailing on the Berlin Bourse, and added to the state of depression in London. The latter market sold for its own and other foreign account fully 25,000 shares of our stocks, of which United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper made up the major portions. The selling of coppers was probably due to a sensational decline in Rio Tintos in London.

Initial dealings here showed declines of a point to over two points. There were fitful rallies, but in the late afternoon, when trade was lightest, a part of the early loss was retrieved. The most notable exception among high grade issues was Canadian Pacific, which was persistently pressed for sale, some of the offerings coming direct from Berlin.

The government crop report was the sustaining feature of the final hour. The corn condition on October 1st was 82.2, a slight gain over last month. The indicated crop was estimated at 3,016,000,000 bushels, a decided gain over last month, and almost 500,000,000 in excess of last year's ultimate yield. Indicated yield of Spring wheat was estimated at over 30,000,000 in excess of last month's figures, and other cereals showed improvement.

Money was more firm. Foreign exchange strengthened on account of the war scare.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $2,115,000. United States government bonds, unchanged.

CROP ESTIMATES

October Report Gives Promise of Bountiful Harvests

Washington, Oct. 9.—With the garnering of the harvests of the country, predicted earlier in the season to be greater in most cases than ever grown by this or any other nation, the Department of Agriculture continued its preliminary estimates of the production of these crops in the October report of the crop reporting board, of its bureau of statistics. The report, compiled from reports of correspondents and agents of the bureau and issued at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon, announced preliminary estimates of the production of Spring wheat, all wheat, oats and barley and estimated, from condition reports, the prospective total yield of corn, buckwheat, potatoes, tobacco and rice.

The report issued today shows:

Corn—Condition 82.2; acre yield 27.9; production 3,016,000,000.

Spring wheat—Acre yield 17.2; production 330,391,000; quality 88.7.

All wheat—Acre yield 16.0; production 72,333,000.

Oats—Acre yield 37.4; production 1,417,172,000; quality 91.0.

Barley—Acre yield 29.7; production 224,619,000; quality 86.2.

Buckwheat—Condition 89.2; acre yield 21.4; production 18,000,000.

Potatoes—Condition 85.1; acre yield 108.8; production 401,000,000.

Tobacco—Condition 81.8; acre yield 816.0; production 974,000,000.

Flax—Condition 83.8; acre yield 9.8; production 29,000,000.

Rye—Condition 89.2; acre yield 33.4; production 24,000,000.

Apples—Condition 67.8.

JURY NOT COMPLETE.

One More Needed in Becker Case—Two Excused.

New York, Oct. 9.—The jury for the trial of Charles Becker, former police lieutenant, accused of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, still was incomplete at the close of a tedious examination today of more than 70 talesmen. Although two more jurors were selected, they took the places of jurors No. 8 and No. 11, who, earlier in the day, had been excused because of illness in their families. The net result of the day's proceedings was that the jury box still had one seat vacant when Justice Goff was obliged to adjourn court until tomorrow, because the panel of talesmen became exhausted. The two new jurors were Charles R. Rauchfess, real estate dealer, and Alfred Felheimer, an architect.

Dear Amy:—

I'll just drop you a line to say I'm home again after my visit to mother—then, I'll make myself "comfy" beside my new heating stove, to read that new book you told me to get.

When you see my new stove, Amy, you'll agree with me that it is far nicer than the coal grates, and so much less trouble. The style I bought is so elegant, too. It's a beautifying addition to any room.

Come over soon. LOU.

P. S.—It is so nice to know a house you can rely on—one like respect, but those gentlemen have been so intimately associated with the powers that have been determining the policy of this government for almost a generation that they cannot look at the affairs of the United States with the view of a new age, and a changed set of circumstances. Their thought is in close habitual association with those who have framed the protective tariff; have developed the trusts; have co-ordinated and ordered all the great economic forces of this country in such fashion that nothing but an outside force breaking in can disturb their domination and control. Therefore the Democratic party stands up in the presence of these gentlemen and says:

"'We are not denying your integrity; we are not denying your purpose, but the thought of the people of the United States has not yet penetrated to your consciousness. You are willing to act for the people, but you are not willing to act through the people'."

On the train from Springfield to St. Louis and en route to Chicago was a host of Democratic leaders. The Governor's party never was so large before.

The Governor at Springfield, Ill., laid a wreath on the tomb of Lincoln. He was accompanied to the tomb by the members of the Supreme Court of Illinois.

TEST NEWSPAPER LAW

Journal of Commerce Files Suit Charging Unconstitutionality

New York, Oct. 9.—Suit to test the right of the government to enforce the Federal law of August 24th, 1912, requiring newspapers and periodicals to publish their circulation figures twice a year and imposing other publicity requirements, was filed in the United States District Court here today by the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin Company, publishers of the Journal of Commerce.

The suit is directed against Postmaster General Hitchcock, Attorney General Wickersham, United States District Attorney Wise and Postmaster Morgan, of New York. The petitioner charges the law is unconstitutional and prays for a temporary injunction restraining its enforcement until final adjudication. It also requests that the defendants be required, by subpoena to answer.

Back of the action, according to Robert C. Morris, of counsel for the complainant, is the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. The association decided recently to file a test suit and the Journal of Commerce, Mr. Morris said, in filing its petition, has the sanction and co-operation of the association.

The petition alleges there are upwards of 25,000 newspapers and periodicals in the country affected by the law.

It charges that the law is void because it violates the Federal constitution and the first and fifth amendments and abridges the freedom of the press. The law is characterized as of no benefit to the postoffice or any other department of the government, inasmuch as obedience by the periodicals and newspapers would not "aid or assist in the operation of the Postoffice Department or in the carrying of mails or the regulation thereof."

In its petition the complainant announces it will not comply with the law for the reasons given and declares the defendants are about to enforce the law by denying the complainants the use of the mails. With reference to that portion of the law which requires that all printed matter for which there is any compensation received shall be labelled, "Advertisement," the petition says:

"All such matters are matters of business arrangement or of favor of otherwise between your complainant and its advertisers; and such provision of the act is not necessary nor proper to assist the government or any department or official thereof to carry out or perform any power or duty intrusted or granted to the United States by the several States under the constitution or otherwise."

It is charged also that the law, if enforced, would result in the confiscation of the complainant's property without due process.

"It is not within the power of Congress," the complainant continues, "to enact said act; and it is an usurpation by Congress of powers expressly reserved to the several States, and is legislation affecting matters with which the several States of the United States alone have the right to treat."

THE GAME LAWS.

Desperate Violator Brought to Time in Massachusetts.

New York, Oct. 9.—A desperate violator of the game laws of Massachusetts has just been brought to justice by agents of the American Game Protective & Propagation Association. At the request of the Massachusetts authorities, D. C. Speenburgh, of the association, has been at work on the case of Chauncey A. Burdick, of North Adams, for nearly a year and has succeeded in getting evidence which resulted in conviction on 19 counts for violations of the game and excise laws. A prison sentence of three months and fines amounting to $290 were imposed.

The association stands ready to send its experts to the aid of game officials in any part of the United States, whether to assist in legal work or in securing evidence in baffling cases. It has been found in many instances that a man from outside is successful where the local warden fails on account of being too well known. Through its special agents the association is accomplishing much in this line.

GRABOW RIOT CASE.

Three Jurors Selected and Another Special Venire is Summoned.

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 9—When the trial of the Grabow labor riot case was adjourned at 3 o'clock this afternoon until tomorrow morning, three jurors were in the box, John Hagan and Albert DeRouette, accepted this forenoon and S. W. Mack, a farmer, accepted this afternoon.

The 90 veniremen had been exhausted when adjournment was taken and Judge Overton ordered 50 talesmen of a special venire of 150 to appear tomorrow morning and the remaining 100 should the jury not be completed earlier, to appear Friday morning.

INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION.

National Society Will Meet in Philadelphia in December—Programme.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

New York, N. Y., Oct. 9.—The National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education will hold its annual meeting in the city of Philadelphia on December 5, 6 and 7, 1912. The rapid progress which the movement for practical education in this country is making is opening large fields of usefulness for the Society, and increasing the already large interest in its work and in its annual meetings.

It is the custom of the Society to meet alternately in the East and West, last year the session being held in Cincinnati and this year in Philadelphia. The cities in which the meetings have been held from year to year have been themselves greatly benefited by the presence of the society and its annual convention. The interest in vocational education has been greatly stimulated, and in the wake of the meeting there have usually followed larger activities on the part of the local school authorities and schools, for meeting the vocational needs of its boys and girls, and men and women.

The programme this year is an usually strong one. Many of the speakers being persons of national reputation. Among them are such notables as Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana; Julia C. Lathrop, chief of Children's Bureau, recently appointed by President Taft; Congressman William C. Redfield, of Brooklyn; Hon. Carroll S. Page, United States Senator from Vermont, and author of the Page bill; Hon. William B. Wilson, representative member of Congress, Seventh Pennsylvania district, formerly secretary United Mine Workers of America; H. E. Miles, chairman Wisconsin Commission on Industrial Education, Racine, Wis.; F. A. Geier, chairman Committee on Industrial Education, National Metal Trades Association, Cincinnati; Florence M. Marshall, principal Manhattan Trade School for Girls, New York; Mrs. Mary Schenck Woolman, president Women's Educational and Industrial Union, Boston; Clarence J. Owens, managing director Southern Commercial Congress, and others of equal note.

The different sessions of the society will devote their attention to large and important topics. On Thursday morning a special session for members from Pennsylvania and others interested will discuss proposed legislation in vocational education for that State. Thursday afternoon separate round-tables will take up the problems of securing teachers for vocational work in two sections; one dealing with boys' work and the other with girls' work.

Thursday night the annual banquet of the Society will occur. The subject for discussion being "Federal Aid for Vocational Education."

Friday morning the means of opening the way for vocational education in State and local communities will be considered. Friday afternoon a symposium on debatable issues in vocational education will be held. Friday night a symposium on the protection, equipment and conservation of childhood through vocational education will be discussed.

Saturday morning at its final meeting ways by which the schoolmaster and the layman can do team work in helping get vocational education will be the theme.

Social workers, philanthropists, workingmen, manufacturers, business men, educators and citizens interested in the welfare of its workers, will all find in this programme much of interest and profit. All those interested in the society, its purpose and its annual convention, should write to C A. Prosser, Secretary, Room 415, 105 East 22nd street, New York City.

TRUST DECLARED VOID

Fund of $2,000,000 Created by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy's Will

Boston, Mass., Oct. 9.—A trust estimated at $2,000,000 created by the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, for the benefit of the denomination, was declared void by the Massachusetts Supreme Court today. The court holds, however, that a charitable trust has been created and that new trustees may be appointed to administer it.

The trust was to have been administered by the directors of the Mother Church in Boston, but the court decided the trust provisions were nullified under the statute limiting the amount of the income from bequests to religious organizations to $2,000 annually.

The court dismissed the bill brought by the contestants of the will, who alleged the teachings of Christian Science were against public policy. The contestants, however, are given 30 days in which to bring in additional evidence to support their claim.

WHALE BREAKS SHIP'S RIBS

Dashes Against Vessel's Side When Struck by a Harpoon

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 9.—How a gigantic sperm whale broke two steel ribs of the steam whaler Tyee, Jr., and disabled a dynamo and one engine when harpooned off Sitka Bay, Alaska, August 15th, was told by the crew of the whaler, which arrived from Baranof Island last night.

The battle with the whale began when Gunner Sigurd Blick, former lieutenant in the Norwegian navy, harpooned the big fellow. The whale dashed at the vessel with terrific speed. There was a crash as he struck amidship on the port side. The force of the collision increased the whale's fury, and after a hard struggle it escaped. The whale was nearly 90 feet long and worth $1,200.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS

Decisions Handed Down Yesterday—Judge Clark's Appointments

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—The Supreme Court today denied the right of a plaintiff to a suit to examine the letters of an intended defendant unless it was established that the letters would show material points. The case in question was that of Isham Fields vs. W. T. Coleman and Jas. H. Young for causing Fields' expulsion from the First Baptist church of Raleigh (negro). Fields wanted to allege in his complaint that certain letters that Coleman had written to a woman would show conspiracy, his contention being that he must have these letters before he could make his complaint. Since Fields might have wanted the letters for a malicious object and since he did not know what they contained the higher court sustained the lower court in denying him that right.

Jesse T. Jones, the Johnston county white man pardoned a year ago for murder in the second degree, cannot secure his citizenship until after the expiration of the five-year period, unless he makes application to the courts to test the full effect and force of the pardon. Jones was sent up for 20 years for killing a little negro who was fishing at his pond. The judge and others recommended pardon. Later Jones presented his pardon and asked for citizenship, which was denied.

The Coharie Lumber Co., vs. W. C. Buhmann and others, from New Hanover, presented no new features and the Supreme Court found no error. The lumber company was suing Buhmann to recover a $3,000 bond penalty, for the recovery of a note of $2,500 and three notes of $500 each. It was contended that the defendant was trying to evade these obligations and an attachment of his property was sought. The court found otherwise. The complete list of opinions handed down today is as follows:

Town of Warsaw vs. Malone, Sampson county, affirmed; Jewelry Co. vs. Joyner, Lenoir, no error; Thompson vs. Smith, Wake, affirmed; Lumber Co. vs. Buhmann, New Hanover, no error; Fields vs. Coleman, Wake, affirmed; Mule Co. vs. Seaboard Air Line, Wake, new trial; In re petition of Jesse T. Jones, Johnston, affirmed; Graves vs. Howard, Wilson, affirmed; American Steel and Wire Co., vs. Copeland, Lenoir, no error; Faison vs. Moore, Duplin, affirmed; Carson vs. Woodrow, Nash, affirmed.

In prosecuting his Senatorial campaign Chief Justice Walter Clark will speak at Kittrell, October 10th; Fayetteville, October 11th; Wilson, October 12th, and Durham, Monday, October 14th. Also Hon. A. W. Graham, ex-judge and former Speaker of the House, is to make speeches at Orange Grove October 10th and Hurdle's Mill October 11th. And Hon. W. C. Douglass is to speak at Mt. Gilead October 11th and Troy, October 14th, in the interest of the Clark candidacy.

THAT ILLINOIS DECISION.

New York Railway Men and Bankers Pleased by Court Ruling.

New York, Oct. 8.—The decision of the United States Circuit Court in Illinois, holding the two cent passenger rate law of that State unconstitutional so far as the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railroad is concerned, is greeted with a good deal of satisfaction in railroad and banking circles.

Railroad men in this city, who have commented upon the decision, point out that it is in no wise a general protection from such State laws; that, in fact, it would apparently remain to be determined in each individual case whether like relief can be obtained by other railroads. Nevertheless, this is one case in which the contention of railroad men that two cents a mile does not usually compensate railroads for the cost of carrying a passenger, including the interest on the value of the property used for the purpose, has been upheld, and they believe that there may be many such cases.

What particularly attracts the attention of bankers is the seeming disposition of this Federal court to consider the effect of such a statute upon an individual road, instead of treating it solely from the standpoint of the passenger business of an entire State.

The report of Special Master Otis, in the Minnesota cases, laid down the broad principle that a reasonable return upon the capital invested in a steam railroad is 7 per cent. Until these cases are decided by the Supreme Court, it will be difficult to judge the actual effect of the decision in the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis case.

TRUST ATTACKED ITSELF.

Harvester Advertisements Pictured It as Crushing Out Competition.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Evidence in support of the government's charges in its suit for the dissolution of the International Harvester Company that the defendant corporation concealed its ownership of acquired business competitors was given today, when the hearing was resumed before Special Examiner Taylor, of the United States District Court, of St. Paul.

A number of illustrated advertisements, describing D. M. Osborne & Co., of Auburn, N. Y., as "the largest independent manufacturers of harvesting implements in the world," published in an agricultural trade journal several months after it is charged the concern had been absorbed by the International Harvester Company, were introduced as evidence. The advertisements pictured the alleged harvester combination as attempting to crush all opposition.

E. N. Wood, secretary of the International Harvester Company, of America, testified that all the stock of the corporation was held in trust for the owners by George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick, and James Deering.

Saved By His Wife

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me. A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. BELMONT RAPS MOOSE

Alliance Between Corporations and Politicians, He Says

(Special to Washington Post.)

Kansas City, Oct. 8.—Perry Belmont, president of the National Publicity Law Association, took a rap at the Progressive party in a speech here tonight before the Knife and Fork Club, on the subject of campaign fund publicity.

Mr. Belmont declared that the triumph of the Progressive party this Fall would mean the undoing of all the work of the National Publicity Law Association in bringing about a campaign fund reform, and would result in renewing the alliance between corporations and politicians. This alliance, said the speaker, reached its culmintaion in the campaign of 1904, and if the Progressive party prevailed the alliance would be placed quite beyond the reach of legislation.

"A more reactionary proposition," affirmed Mr. Belmont, "could hardly be advocated by any political party unless it is the still more reactionary interpretation of the unwritten law against the third term.

"It is as if it were proposed," said he, "with similar unhesitating assurance and unfailing inconsistency to correct the evils of the corrupting secrecy of party funds in presidential elections by having as few presidential elections as possible, or by abolishing them altogether in the interest of a President for life."

SHOT GUNS RIFLES

The proper way to increase your business is to cut your competitor down with a Kelly Axe, or saw him down with a Simond or Diston Cross Cut or Hand Saw, or shoot him down with a Winchester Rifle or Self-Loading Shot Gun with Winchester or U. M. C. Ammunition, or burn him up in a Loths' AirBlast Perfect or Magic Heater or cover him up with Faultless Roofing, the roofing that is made specially for you, or fence him in with Pittsburg Fence which is welded together with that weld that held.

REMOVAL!

We take pleasure in announcing to our Friends and the Public that we have moved to No. 24 North Front Street—store formerly occupied by Mr. R. F. Hamme, the Hatter. It is next to the Southern Hotel, between Market and Princess Streets.

We will be pleased to have you call and let us show you the most up-to-date line of Footery in the City.
